Dear Father Baltimore April 24th 1817

We arrived safe here the same day we left you & I live with the Punch master at the rate of $216 per annum which includes washing & I believe pewter also. On the 22 I sold Leven for $400 to a man to the southard men out of jail & good mechanicks are selling for $350. if it had not been for the fits which he has I could have got $500 & perhaps $550 I told him what Fits was & he will also give me the same sum $400 for her & Child & to insure it he has gone under a forfeit of $50 if she turns out what I said & he does not take her. But she must be here on Saturday early in the evening which is about the 2 of May if she is not here again that time I miss the sale of her to that man. write me by her what I shall do with the money or whether I will pay Mr Little & the shoemakers or not. We were at the Museum the Children were very much
