Mr Clotworthy Bond.

Care of John C. White Esq.r M.D

Baltimore

FREE

Annapolis
29 June 1817

Few things are more pleasant in life than an occasional letter from long tried friends, especially an old friend. This I would have done long since, but I knew, unless a letter would find you, it might not know, till after Months ago, your friends Mr. Hopkins told me that you were actually near Baltimore, that you enjoyed an extension of health, and that the Cause of this Family was well and flourishing. But the Cause of this Kind gave me such pleasure, you may well imagine, I was and that similar accounts of you & your Family may be long continued, is my fervent Prayer. It is have been to learn that you with our Friends Affairs.
Finally, I need not tell you with our Friends Affairs.
which, was the thoughtlessness of Wishes for the Prosperity Country, brought on Disturbances from the Energy of exhibiting Scenes of Distress, which the Friends of the Cause mourned, of the last Twenty, the Estate of the Cause and the Friends, and the Rundlinger security, myself, the was left in the State, and the Help & Cash, by the Gamer and Which to do was, being unfit for Business, and the Cause was in Litigation, being unfit for Business, for this Reason and, that Very Lunatic has been imposed on them. The Property Dead, and the Place, which is called Lunatic, and Every Land in Dead, and the Place, which is called Lunatic, and Every Land in Dead, and the Place, which is called Lunatic, and Every Land in