Dear Sir

I have only time to say I have forwarded the Letter to Mr Shird & Crabster and given Instructions to John McIntosh to learn 2 Letters at Mr Shrodes for you. The Young Man that Andrew sent me could neither Read nor write, so that he will not Answer. I am obliged to send the bearer. I think I know my little of Accounts but he is pretty Cunning and must do till a better offers. If you are acquainted with an honest Fellow, that would Ans^w (please) let me know as John has taken the advantage of my distress. would not go till
