Dear Sir

Frederick 11 June 1847

I rec. your esteemed Letter requesting I would enquire about the price of Wool — there is only one person in this Town or Neighbourhood that I can hear of that purchases the Article & they dont buy much, I applied to them & find their price 40 Cents ⅌ lb. on my remarking that common Wool not long since sold for 50 Cents, He said 30 Cents was now the price, & it is to be clean wool fit for Manufacturing, that is washed after being shorn there are a great Number of Fullers

Armoury &c., Any Orders you have to give respecting the wool shall be attended to — by a Belfast paper which Mr Harper sent by Mr Cathcart to Mr Thomson, I see
