& such Truck here about, but in all their advertisements they never speak of buying Wool, they either manufacture it for the owner, or take it in Exchange for Cloth. — Business goes on a good deal to mind, whether it is owing to the partiality of my Friends, or the goodness of my drink I cannot say, but it is much praised I had an Order for part of a Load to Winchester in Virginia & I went down to Harpers Ferry to see & make way for the remainder of the Load, but instead of an Order for part of a Load I got orders for more than the Waggon could take it started this morning, of course I must send it to Winchester next week the orders were from respectable Store Keepers — I am generally pretty lucky in finding Friends where ever I go, I there met an old Townsman who was very kind & his wife equally so altho she was [redacted] to me; I must neither eat nor sleep any where else, His name is Wm Reid his Father was a Cabinet maker, & he now works at Gun stocks, being more profitable, he lives comfortably has 2 Daughters the eldest married, his wifes name is Patterson from Maghera — When you pay us a Visit we must try & go there, it is worth seeing the day had the appearance of being wet & I hurried home without going to see the