properly prepared spirit.

If you can by any means aid in the attainment of John Scott's entitlements, for his creditors you will do him much service. He has written to Messrs. Shannon, James Lube, & Sylvester Peter McGlem on this subject.

Our embassy continues, with continued, unchanged prayers, tell your friends the English seem persuaded themselves to ~~[illegible]~~ have on their own equity, some justice than they have hitherto done. Their claims, & naval violence will not be borne. The expatiation of intervening with them will be nothing inconvenience. With compliments to Mrs. Bennet & all friends I am yours sincerely

John Lamplugh Wilson

Thursday 4:50 to 5.0
2d 1827