Dwyer called on him. he says it very likely after some little time he will go to the Western Country - but that he will give me an Answer about 4 o Clock

In the mean time till he comes I shall tell you what I am doing, Yesterday I Bottled 32 Dozen of Ale. I am in great hopes this will be a good Summer for my business. and as I have a large Stock of Porter & Ale on Hand, I mean to commence early, the Bank here having called in 10 p Cent has Run me very hard, the Money which should go to the Farmer is applied to that purpose - so that between both I am to be Pitied. and only for my good Friend Penrose I could not stand it - however with the blessing of God I trust to make the Price of a Knife this Summer - will you have the goodness to get $11 from Mr Pierrepy for a Barrel of Flour sold him by Mr Dunnett. I told the latter if he was in your employment, or any way Convenient you w.d get it - my Winter offence was not much as I became my own Malt Man with the assistance of a Scotchman who I made so Compleat at the business that he left me when Master - and is now getting $30 p Month from Capt Leonard in Baltimore at present I have my dear Country Man Thos. McDermott at your driven from the County Longford. and a very good fellow he is. altho he knew nothing of the Malting when he came to me I have him now perfect Master - I shall never employ what you call a Malt Man again - I had better Beer this Winter than ever I had in Consequence of my making the Malt myself - I consider the two wages say $16 p Month and board himself -

Please inform Mr Short to put some of the Porter into the Cave Room and it will take with the Bottle immediately - do all you can for me in that quarter. for if I cannot do something this Summer I shall quit brewing in my own Aunt -

Mr Yates has just called to say he does not think he will want Williams - at present I am not acquainted with any Oyster who I w.d recommend Mrs Hinry to send her Son to - I shall make enquiry and any thing that I can do to be of service to the Widow, and orphan it will ever give me pleasure - With love to Upton & my little Friend Rogers Mrs Brown & Ladies & Gentlemen to Come & see me - In haste Your ever affectionate
