Mr Bayly Rec. your Letter by yesterdays Mail, which I have read; it certainly is not my Business to dictate to you in the Sale of your People, but if the Bearer & you can agree as to the price, I would recommend your not differing with him about Interest on one half the Money for a Year - The Georgia People or those who buy to sell to them again, always give better prices than the regular Purchaser who buys for his own use. Every person I spoke to respecting the two first purchasers, alledge that they
