Letter by Lt. Col. Lee
Col. Commdg. 1st Regt

Gettysburg Pa. April 20th 1863

Dear Sir

Yours of the 13th inst. enclosing Mr. Fox's letter to Mr. Cadwalader was duly received. I regret very much that I could not do more than I did for Mr. Fox. Mr. Cadwalader was in the Department when the letter was received from the Adjt. Genl's Office, & I was obliged to return it to him for action. I feel very sorry for Mr. Fox, & regret that I could not do more than I did for him. I shall be glad to see you whenever you may feel disposed to do so, and I trust the weather will be such that you may do so without inconvenience.

Very respectfully yours &c.
Wm. D. Lee
