msa_sc2915_scm1013-0077 ©Maryland State Archives

John Thomas — Rinaldo Pindell
Dr. James Cheston — Thomas L. Hall

They then balloted for a Vestry for the ensuing year and upon Counting the Ballots it appeared that

John Thomas — James Owens Jr.
Dr. James Cheston — John F. Wilson
Dr. Ben. Carr — A. J. Murray Jr.
Rinaldo Pindell — Thomas L. Hall

were unanimously elected.

The Vestry elect then proceeded to appoint the necessary Officers for the following year.

John Thomas and Saml. Gott Wardens
Thomas L. Hall Register and Treasurer

The Vestry then unanimously elected John Thomas Lay Delegate to the next Convention. Also Doct. James Cheston in event of Mr. Thomas's inability to attend.

The Vestry Adjourned

Easter Monday April 1st 1839

This being the day appointed by Law to elect a Vestry. The Parishioners present proceeded to Vote out by ballot the following persons who were members of the Vestry the preceding year.

John Thomas — Dr. James Cheston
A. J. Murray — Thomas L. Hall

They then proceeded to election of a Vestry for the ensuing year and upon Counting the Ballots it appeared that the following persons were elected.

John Thomas — John F. Wilson
Dr. James Cheston — James Owens Jr.
Dr. Benj. Carr — A. J. Murray
Rinaldo Pindell — Thomas L. Hall

The Vestrymen present, to wit, Revd. Wm. F. Chesley

John Thomas — James Owens Jr.
Dr. James Cheston — A. J. Murray
John F. Wilson — Thomas L. Hall

Proceeded to appoint the following named persons as Officers of St. James's Church for the ensuing year

John Thomas & Saml. Gott Wardens
Thomas L. Hall Register & Treasurer.

On motion of the Rev. Wm. F. Chesley Rector it was determined that the Vestry now proceed to the election of a Lay Delegate to represent this Parish in the next Convention.

John Thomas being put in nomination by Jno. F. Wilson was unanimously elected Lay Delegate to the next Gent. Convention.

The Rev. William F. Chesley informed the Vestry that he had intended to have prepared and submitted at this meeting a full and Complete report of all his proceedings in reference to the repairs of the Church but his engagements had prevented him but at the next meeting of the Vestry he would be prepared to do so. He submitted a partial Statement showing that the amount subscribed was not sufficient to defray the expense incurred and that there was a balance of the amount subscribed still due, and asked to be excused from any farther trouble in raising funds to make up the deficit. Whereupon it was resolved, on motion of Thomas L. Hall that each Vestryman use his exertions in collecting the balance subscribed and not paid and also that they raise by a new subscription, so much as may be necessary to liquidate the balance now supposed to be due.