Baltimore 8 July 1819

Dear Sir

The Planer Owen Rourke goes out as far as your place to know if you have got hands enough he brings to me a very good recommendation, therefore if you are not already suppliedd, probably he might answer your purpose

Respectfully &c

Wm Macfarlan

My dear Sir Gettysburg 13th July 1819

We are particularly anxious to hear from you - and request you will inform us by the bearer how Miss Bessie Rose, & Ann. and when I was at your House I forgot to ask whether or not you intended selling one of the Carts, which you had in the Road - the bearer Jemie Johnston requested I would do so and forgot it - I now am glad that has been the case - as we shall hear how the Girls and I heard nothing of him more than I think he is one of the best Coloured Men I ever knew - and believe him honest - I think it very likely Sally will be at your House the bearer of the wash - whom I hope you will not detain her
