Dear Sir I Recd. your favor of Augt.
the 5th and have noted the contents — I have sent you the Salt ordered, & I could not get any Timothy seed less than five dollars pr Bushel, and it was old, I therefore declined sending the old seed for fear it would not Answer, your — wagon could not take you & coach of whisky in consequence of the Plows — I do not think whisky will be higher and as you were not in immediate want, it will answer you as well when your wagon comes to town again The prospects of flour being a good price this winter, is very discouraging it is the opinion of the merchants here it will not be worth more than five dollars during the winter season As to a war with Spain it is all a farce as I dont believe there will be any — Our City is very sickly, and there
