Dear Sir Frederick 14th Oct 1819

I wrote you yesterday by Mail since when I have Rec'd your favor of the 8th I did not receive until after Bank Hours — I however inclose you the Hundred Dollars desired (by Mr Mc Ilhenny) I immediately called on Mr Bonty with the Note, he says he will endeavour to pay it this week, but complains as is customary of the great scarcity of money, you may rely on my attending to it — the Major waits — Yours truly A J
