Dear Sir Annexed you have a bill of your flour and the goods you Ordered Sir you Ought to be very particular in giving the Miller Orders to make your flour Super fine, the price is so low that 50 cents a barrel makes a greate differance to the Owner Ephram Sold five dollars worth of the Butter on the road comming to town, the remainder 45 lb he sold in the Store to Mr. Sander, 20 cents, I thought it was better for him to take 20 cents, as to stand market as the best of fresh Butter in pounds can be bought there for 25 cents in the Advertisement
