Dear Clotworthy

altho' I have not had the Pleasure of hearing from yourself I have from others, Causes for rejoicing at your Prosperity in what we call the new World.

I am much as you left us. two of my Sons one in the east Indies & another in New Castle Wales both Surgeons in the army our oldest Son is mostly with us & the youngest is commencing the Practice of Physick in this town.

as Mr. Bryson is just now writing to you, he will give you particular intelligence Politic & domestic.

you may remember I attended the late Wm. Scott a very long time & as his Son John was much
