married, when departing from this Country I did not urge him for Fees, I rather refused. But as I am informed he is now settled well in America. & I am informed he could visit me without inconvenience. I shall esteem it a very great favour if you let him know, such a thing would be very agreable as soon as convenient.

I would not have troubled you with this disagreable office, but that I am entirely ignorant of his Residence or Circumstances.

I rejoiced very much when I heard your Daughter intended visiting this little Island. and was much disappointed when I heard she had changed her Mind.

That all Happiness may attend you & your family, is the wish of your obliged friend
