Philip Key, of St. Mary's $300=00 - of what she was to get from Edmund Key's Estate - Mrs. Ch. Key Bruce being the other Legatee - is entitled to receive the same sum - as paid to Mrs. Maynadier -

Dr. Scott received of P. Key $500 - 00 - but $40 - of this sum - was kept by Dr. Scott in payment of some claim he had - when I received Mrs. Maynadiers part. Dr. Scott observed that he would hold Mrs. Ch. R. Bruces part until he should call for it - and that he should write, informing him, that the Money was in his hands -

For Mrs. C. Bruce

Fredericks March 14th 1820

If an opportunity should not offer My dear Father I think I will send you this by the mail on Thursday by the time I write to Rose. On Sunday Mrs Fenwy heard of his father's death it was occasioned by the rupture of a blood vessel — Mr F — was surprised to his room when he heard it and it has been a great shock to him — unworthy as he was still he was his father and it is dreadful to think of his being so soon launched into eternity; in the midst of strangers too, not one relative near him. We think the first shock is over Mrs F—'s health will suffer the better as it was enough to wreck the strongest minds the anxiety he must have undergone for his father. When I left Baltimore Mrs McFarlane had gone to Virginia and Mr Gatchell is going to see you. I will write to Aston the last of the week. If My Mother can spare me I would like to stay alone a week longer with Mrs Fenwy with love to her and all My dear Father

Yr ever affct

Margaret
