out in Beer - the Tavern keepers who have got my Beer - are all well pleased with it - the say there is no such Beer in any other Part - I brew one month and could spare - but the truth is I cannot get a Dollar from one of them - poor old Cragg is to be sold out by the Sheriff on 29th Instant times here are truly dull - I am glad to find you have got an Irish Bard, if I was in blood and had time I would be up to see you - I intend filling all my Casks with good Summer drink and will supply your part of the Cavalry this Seventeenth Bottled Porter -

I have got plenty of wild Water in the Well - but no Pump in it yet as the Boy is waiting I must bid you farewell - with love to all the Family I remain D.r Sir

Yours Most truly
