It Should Be in Every House

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Border, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it, Free trial Bolles at George & Redden's, Drug Store. Large bottles, 50c, and $1.00.

The Muir---Stack Nuptials.

The marriage of Mr. James S. Muir, of Philadelphia, and Miss Bessie Stack, daughter of Mrs Lida Stack of Hillsborough, an event that has been anticipated with great pleasure by the young people of the place for some weeks, was solemnized in St. Pauls P. E. Church of that place on Monday last at high noon. The floral decorations consisted of beautiful potted plants and a floral bell was suspended from the ceiling under which the couple stood during the ceremony.

A few minutes before the arrival of the bridal party Miss Ida Wilkinson began the wedding march and as the joyful notes echoed throughout the church the party entered preceeded by the ushers, Messrs. Ed. Jarrell, John Wilson and Lay Beaven, and the maids-of-honor Misses Cora and Stella Stack sisters of the bride. Following these came the bride leaning on the arm of her cousin, Mr. E. M. Stack, of Federalsburg. Proceeding to the altar they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Lee Redden, of Farmington, Del., where the ceremony was performed in an impressive manner by Rev. G. F. Beaven pastor of the church.

The bride was attired in white surah silk trimmed with tulle and Roman Pearl beads, and carried a bouquet of white rose buds and carnations. The brides-maids wore white crepe and lace and also carried flowers.

After the ceremony the relatives and intimate friends partook of the wedding breakfast which was served at the residence of the brides mother. Mr. and Mrs. Muir left for Philadelphia on the 4.11 train where they will make their home.
