I obtruded too much upon their convenience: but when you reflect on my situation, & that "I found myself at home" among them, you will ~~not be~~ excuse my unwillingness to start. Should you revisit Ireland, I trust you will find me acting in such a manner, that you will not consider your hospitality & exertions to have been thrown away upon a useless individual.

I am to sail for Weapost in the Dellington. She will start on Wednesday or Thursday next week. I should feel great pleasure in conveying any letters or packages the family may have to send to their friends. I would have informed you sooner, had I sooner determined upon this step. — I called today upon Mr. Henderson to inquire if your cart were in. His answer you may suppose. He told me, he had, some time ago, received a letter from you, inquiring the rate of Rye Flour, & that he had not had a proper opportunity of sending his answer. Rye Flour he said is extremely low, & Wheat Flour at 4½ Dollrs. p. Bl. I intend to have for you at his Store, a small parcel, of which I beg your acceptance. It may perhaps be of use to Mr. Worthy. — I am at present at Mr. Spencer's South Street. — Dr. Falls & family were very kind to me when I called upon them. I remained one night with them. They inquired much for you & family.

You will much oblige me by conveying to Mrs. Reid & all the members of her family my sincere thanks for the kind attentions I experienced from them. I should feel pleased could I be of service to them in Ireland.

With sentiments of the highest respect for Mrs. B. the family, your Brother & yourself, I am

Dear Sir your obliged humble Servt.

William Hutton Junr.
