to disturb the Ministry and their friends. She has been roughly used, and with such fervor and intent against her, any departure from correctness could not fail to be proved. We have had rather an uncomfortable season, and for the last week it has been very much so. Baltimore continues perfectly free from any alarm or fear. We are well, & Katie & family join me in best respects to Mrs Perrine & your family.

Yours &c

Mr Duke's from Philadelphia and me, that a son of the late Dr Perrine's, who is a Surgeon, is married to one of my sister Peggy's daughters

Yours sincerely

John Campbell Wilkes