by duties on prohibitions, has even fostered Manufactures to maturity. Fortunately our Govt. is obliged to impose duties for the sake of revenue, which have enabled our manufacturers to struggle with foreign competitors.

I have had to have the memorial respectfully signed, & presented to your legislature as early as practicable — & also to have a Committee appointed to make the proper investigations.

I am an prospectus for an Irish Edition of my Vindiciæ Hibernicæ, for which I believe I will procure subscribers. I look out for people by whom I hope a new indemnification.

Yours &c. &c. &c.

Philad.a Dec 25. 1824 Mathew Carey

Chancellor
Penn