Westminster Sept. 5th 1825

Dear

I have made up my mind on the Subject of hauling you Stone on the Road - I will haul any quantity you may want at 90cts per Perch any where between the end of the Road from Westminster to the gate so as to be proportionably along the road When fifty Perches is delivered I shall expect pay for that amt. So as to meet my contract for the bay mount of the Stone and will look to you only for pay and not the company if you accept my proposals please to let me know soon I should like to have some immediately - David Hayden

Baltimore July 28. 1825.

Mr C Birnie

Sir

Your favor of the 7 and 26 inst. we rec'd and contents noticed, We would be pleased to have you deliver the Wool as soon as convenient 2 or 4 Weeks from this will answer, and if it proves to be equally as good as the sample shown us, we will pay the price ~~agreed~~ we mentioned when you was here, We have been much engaged or should have written you before this

Very Respectfully
Your Obt Servs
H Ward & Jackson

Mr Birnie

Dr Sir

I have sots your man thus Rams. two at 7.50. and a Ram lamb at five Dollars. for which he has paid me. they are all of them. full. blood and of the first quality. one of them. two and the other two years old. your man got his sheep frightened that he got of Ringgolds and they are so wild that he tells me it is impossible to drive them. they are within two miles of me at a safe place. and they will be delivered to your order if you please or upon instructions from you I will send them back to General Ringgolds He has made three different attempts to get them on without success.

yrs respectfully
W. H. Coyle

Sept. 17. 1825

Dear Sir

I have sent you the Cover which I think you will be pleased with though the price has Exceeded your limit I have sent you my pick of two hundred at ~~[illegible] dollars~~ five dollars which I am sure you will say they are not ~~[illegible]~~ high you will please pay the money to ~~[illegible]~~ Silby of Friderick. he is now here and will give him an order.

Yours Most Truly
Isaac S. Sciarington
15 Sept 1825