Dear

You will see by the enclosed note that I have again called on Mr. Adams, to pay your taxes — but Mr. Adams has neglected to satisfy himself respecting the years preceding 1817 and will not receive the money until he is satisfied of it — he says he will call again, at the office tomorrow, he hopes his memory will will not again deceive him — I shall consequently retain your money until, after he examines the records of the City — But will not neglect your business — Mr. Thompson requests that I write have the Books, Rollins History, at Mr. Gunton's to go to your sons in Frederick town, that he is on horse back — shall go by Balt.e & cannot take them — they shall be attended to —

I regret very much Mr. Thompson did not call on me sooner — he has in consequence prevented our showing him some

Dear Sir

Liberty Town March 31st 1826

I got to this place the Day before yesterday — and having to remove two of my Tenants — and put others in their places — I am compelled, on account of this disagreeable business, to remain here until Monday or Tuesday next — and then if the weather will permit I mean to make you a visit for a night, provided my indifferent health will allow me to ride so far — But the fact is I am hardly able to look after my business in this quarter — indeed ever since I had the Influenza — I have been complaining — and the 3 or 4 last cold Days has injured me very much — A few days before I left home, Mrs. Edwards, your Tenant, came to me and gave up your House after the 1st. of April, her year ending at that time — she said her school had failed — could not support her family and pay the rent — and should remove again to Baltimore
