him on the subject. At this season of the year we are doing little or nothing & now we are only working to clear off some stock, as soon as we can succeed in this we will stop until the Autumn; when we might probably be able to do something for him, which would give us all much pleasure; should anything happen in the mean time I shall inform him of it. Present our Respects to all your family & believe me to be Yours

Joseph White