Dear Father

I have made an attempt twice to arrange yr business (with Guest) with Marfeld but have not yet succeeded. However looking over the accts in my hands furnished by you in relation thereto the first is from 8th Oct 1825 to April 8th 1826 the next is from Jany 5th 1827 you having omitted to send me the acct of from April 1826 to Jany 1827 a period of 9 m. As the case is not for trial before the Feby Ct & no intermediate costs on it I feel & will arrange it in time, but you must furnish me with the above deficiency which you can do next week by some one coming to Ct. As soon as Mr Mefeld understands it he will inform Col Gist. I await his answer but in course he must strike it off or throw good money after bad. Since you were at his house he

Dear Sir

Annapolis Oct. 17th – 1827 –

On my return Home I found Mr. Cornfield had removed his Store goods and locked up his Door. himself & Wife said to be gone to Baltimore – Yesterday I found him & his Wife had returned ~~to the House~~ – when I urged him for the Rent – which if not paid, I must distrain on his furniture &c &c – His Wife, who seems to be the ruling one – assured me that there was a good Man here, who owed them as much as would pay the rent due on the 1st. of next Month – I went to the Man – who informed me – if I would wait a short time for the Money – he would pay on Cornfields Acct. – I think now I shall secure the Rent – Cornfield is to leave the House – 1st. of next Month – I have had two applications to rent the House – I now want your immediate answer by Mail – have I an
