be administered at Court

Your taxes amounting to 59$ 12¢ for which I hold a receipt to pay which I rec'd $60 –

De Witt Clinton died suddenly the other day I believe from a rupture in a blood vessel I wrote to Mother last week I hope the next mail will bring me an answer

Sincerely Your's
A Bonnicastle

in the S. W. Corner of Virginia, inform me that the cuttings they got from me grew better than those they got from York Town or Philad^a^ York and Mr. Prince are the only persons, who have yet complained of mine where there has been common care taken of them —

In future I shall not make up any cuttings that have missed – without there is a five dollar note inclosed

Yours Respectfully
J. Dwight Lewis
