Ministry, he has accepted Office, and notwithstanding he has always voted for emancipation. Thing Normol as his enemies now call him, has started as a Candidate for Clare, supported by the Association with £5,000 out of the Catholic rent. it is generally believed he will have a large majority of votes, and of course must be returned by the Sherrif, In the North, we look for nothing but bloodshed on the 12th of next month, these Orange ruffians, the curse of our Country, are more wicked and determined than ever, notwithstanding the, as well as all other secret associations are forbidden by law, but our hopeful Majistry winks at their proceedings, and suffers them to do as the please,

The brave Jackson I hope is now sure of his election, since we began to know any thing of his character, all honest Paddys wish sincerely for his success. I hope his vertue and his bravery will clear away all rubbage from about him, no doubt he will find enough of it, even in your happy Country

Many of your old acquaintances are paying the debt of nature, not many now remaining. Will Sims desires to be rembered to you, I have not seen Jack Duncan since my last, I understand his health is very indifferent. poor fellow, I will go and see him as soon as I am able, I must close, the ship intends to sail this evening, adieu

Yours as usual
John Shaw

Frank having ploughd so much I presume it will not do to displace him this fall Should I even lose $100 I suppose I must be content It will be very well satisfied if I am not obliged to fell As you may naturally suppose for the present I am not altogether master of my own time If you see G B Shriner tell him I will be at home in the course of two weeks which will answer his purposes —
