The County Commissioners were in session Tuesday but transacted nothing but unimportant business. They will be in session again to-day.

Mr. E. T. Tubbs, of Baltimore, who has spent several weeks with his parents returned to the city on Monday to take a position on the staff of the Baltimore News.

George F. Sloan & Bro., of Baltimore, last week placed a new advertisement in this paper, to which we invite the attention of all in need of lumber or building material.

Mr. W H. Deen expects to start his new roller mill at Fowling Creek, if a few small pieces of machinery that are still lacking arrive in time, to-day or Friday. His outfit is reported to be very complete.

We understand that Mr. D. J. Zacharias, who bought the old mill site on Tuesday, will erect or endeavor to secure the erection of a woolen mill at the mill site. The water power is ample for anything of this kind and has been laying idle for years. It is to be hoped it will soon be turned to some account.

The sale of the Garey property advertised in these columns took place on Tuesday. The property sold well, bringing more than the owners really expected it would. The total aggregate of the sales was $9,901. The wharf property between town and Greensborough was purchased by D. S. Brockway for $700. The old saw mill site with water rights was bid in by D. J. Zacharias for $825. Mr. W. F. Towers bought the "Gilpin's Point" property at $2,025. E. M. Garey paid $2,600 for a 400 acre tract. Taken altogether the trustee, T. Fred Garey, was highly gratify with the sale.

The first frost of the season on Sunday night.

They Want a Joint Discussion.

DENTON, MD,, Oct. 4th, 1892.

Gentlemen:

I have your note inviting me to meet Hon. Edwin H. Brown before the Cleveland and Stevenson Club of Denton, on Friday evening next, to discuss the issues involved in this campaign. Although this is during the session of our Court, when I am hard pressed with its business, I shall be pleased to accept your invitation, if Mr. Brown will agree to speak at my meeting at Centreville, on Thursday, October 27th, on the same terms as I speak before your Club. This will give Mr. Brown the closing speach here and me the closing speech at Centreville and leave him and me free to reply, in the future, to any points of the closing speech of the other that may be deemed desirable.

I hereby designate Messrs. Harry A. Roe and Thomas W. Jones to make such arrangements as to the time to be occupied by each as may be proper.

I have the honor to be gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,
GEORGE M. RUSSUM.

Messrs. M. Bates Stephens,
Edwin C. Fields,
Z. P. Hutchinson,
Committee.

A Little Girl's Experience In A Lighthouse,

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Deiroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones" —Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely eured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at George & Redden's Drug Store.

A Pastoral Call.

The Rev. W. W. W. Wilson of Smyrna has accepted an invitation to become pastor of First M. E. Church, Hoboken, N. J. He has accepted the call with the expectation of being transferred from Wilmington Conference to New Jersey Conference next spring.

Two weeks ago, when he supplied the pulpit of his brother, the Rev. J. A. B. Wilson, D. D., at Eighteenth Street Church, New York, several members of the Hoboken church were present and they were delighted with his preaching. Soon afterwards he received and accepted an invitation to become their pastor. The appointment to which he has been called is an elegant one. The church is large an excellently located. It pays a salary of $2,500 per year and provides a parsonage free of rent. Mr. Wilson was admitted to Wilmington Conference in 1877 and ranks among its leading members.
