DENTON, MARYLAND.

THURSDAY, Oct. 13th, 1892.

OUR CANDIDATES!

FOR PRESIDENT
BENJAMIN HARRISON, OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
WHITELAW REID, OF NEW YORK.

FOR CONGRESS.
GEORGE M. RUSSUM.
OF CAROLINE.

AT last reports from the sick room, Mrs. Harrison was getting weaker. There is little hope of her recovery.

Now that court is over Mr. Russum expect to enter into an active canvass and make his majority as large as posstble.

CLEVELAND'S contribution to the Campaign is reported to be $10,000. Counting his $10,000 four years ago Grover will be about $20,000 out after November 8th.

IT is said that Ex-mayor Grace has sent his check to Harity for $100,000 but it will take more than that to put the sage of Gray Gables back in the White House.

THE great Columbus celebration in New York city, which began Monday, promises to be the most notable celebration ever held in that city. The decorations are on a plan that have never been equalled in any city in the country, and the interest shown in the matter by all manner of people is evidence of the growth of general intelligence in the masses.

INSTEAD of the Democrats claiming the whole world and the fulness thereof, they think they would now be satisfied if they could only get electoral votes enough to elect one Grover Cleveland president. Friends you can't get them this time. You had better be getting the old Salt-river packet, Grover Cleveland ready for his trip up Salt river.

THE Republican outlook gets better every day. The election of Harriton is a foregone conclusion. The Democrats have become alarmed at the the unanimity which prevails in New York, as they expected to fight a party composed of factions, instead they find the Republicans united and led by the man they most dreaded in the state, His name is Tom Platte.

IN the Homestead riot case it now looks, judging from Chief Justice Paxson's charge to the Grand Jury, as though that charge of treason against the State of Pennsylvania would be sustained, if this be the case, it will prove a serious matter to those implication. The penalty for treason against the State is a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment of not more than twelve years at hard labor in the Penitartiary. Judge Paxson in closing his charge makes the following pertinent remarks.

"We have reached the point in the history of the State where there are but two roads left to us to pursue. The one leads to order and good government, the other to anarchy."

THE discussion which our people expected to listen to between Mr. Russum of this place, and Mr. Brown of Centreville did not take place as was expected. Mr. Russum stood ready to meet Mr. Brown in a discussion of the issues of the campaign the only proviso Mr. Russm made, was that Mr. Brown was to speak in Centreville as well as here from the same platform. This was a fair proposition, but it looks as though our Democratic friends did not want to get Russum and Brown both on the same stump before a Centreville audience. What is the matter friends won't your platform bear discussion as well before a Queen Anne's audience as a Caroline, or is this an easy way to choke down discussion and get "shed" of that challenge.

OUR Democratic friends are daily becoming more alarmed at the situation. When the campaign first opened they were jubilant. They proclaimed to the world through all their leading papers that the Republicans were so broken up into factions that it would be impossible for them to get together, and that Cleveland would have a walkover; that his majority would be so large that they would hardly know what to do with it. In fact from their talk one would expect that they were going to have all of the doubtful States, and they even had serious thoughts of capturing Pennsylvania about the time of the Homestead trouble. But alas, the cloud has lost its silver lining and they behold the Grand old Republican party with its scores of able Generals closing up its ranks for an assault along the line, with not a sulker in his tent. With such invincible statesmen as Blaine, McKinley, Platt, Hiscock, Miller, Sherman, Foreacre, Depew, Foster, Ingals, and their able supporters who are counted by scores, all doing battle for the party of advanced ideas; for the party that has always lived up to its predges, ready at all times and in all places to defend its principles, it is no wonder that the Democrats are becoming discouraged, when they see this solid phalanx marching in unbroked columns to certain victory.

Delaware Dashes.

—Laurel is talking about putting in water works and an electric light plant.

—The peaches shipped at Felton this year, brought $40,000 to the growers.

—The Eagle Hotel Georgetown has been sold by J. T. Chipman to John Truitt, who will take charge Jan. 2st next.

—Bids are being received for rebuilding the St. John's M. E. church near Springfield, Sussex county. The new building will be eight feet longer than the old one.

—The barn of Robert Casey, about two miles from Claymont, was mysteriouly burned on Saturday morning the 1st inst. A horse, cow and a number of pigs perished. Loss $1,500.

—The Grand Encampment of Delaware, I. O. O. F., will hold its annual session in Wilmington on November 15 and the Grand Lodge of the same order will meet on the following day.

—When the hair begins to come out in combing, it shows a weakness of the scalp that calls for immediate attention. The best preparation to arrest further loss of hair and restore the scalp to a healthy condition is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

—It saved his boy's life. Mr. D. A. Curry, Conductor C. & A. R. R., Slater, Mo., gives his convictions thus: "I highly praise Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for saying the life of my little boy, who is five years old. He had a severe case of the croup which the Syrup relieved immediately."

—There is to be a grand parade in Wilmington on Columbus Day, Octorber 21st. Six thousand men are to be in line in floats. As it passes the Court House it is intended to have about 300 school girls dressed in red, white and blue formed so as to represent a great American flag.

—Rev. Clarence Wilson, of Seaford, says that his transfer from Seaford to Fort Smith, Ark., at the request of Bishop Newman, of the M. E. Church, has been revoked. He returns as pastor of the Seaford Church.

—William Evans, the well poisoner, was arraigned in Georgetown, Del,, court on Monday and plead not guilty. The indictment charges him with murder in the first degree. The state as yet has not been able to find any place where Evans purchased poison, but is reported to have two witnesses, who will swear to seeing Evans on the night the well was poisoned, going in the direction of the Rosser farm.

—During a thunder storm a cow on the farm of Miss Emma Clark, near Delaware City, was struck by lightning. The cow was not killed but the entire hide of the animal was loosened to such a degree that a handful may be gathered up on any part of the body, even between the horns, where it usually is as tight as wax. She seems also to have been injured about the brain, as her actions are strange and unnatural. Veterinary Surgeon T. T. Vail attends her and feels much interested in the case.—Middletown New Era.

Wanamaker's

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10. 1892.

Every one of these Autumn work-a-days is an opening day for Dress Goods.

New weave-wonders continually crowd the counters. The woolen and and silk-and-wool beauties of yesterday are jostled by the fresher beauties of to-day.

You can come and come and be sure every time that a kaleidoscopic change awaits you.

Plain stuffs as well as the rich and rare. Let's look at a random four:

Navy blue Serge (three shades) finish like Surah Serge at 50c. The French makers thought it would be 65c.

52-in. Mohair-stripes Chevoit, variety of colors, 75c. Made to sell at $1.25.

Whipcord Serge, Cloth weight, 13 of the finest colorings, 75c.

Fine 45-in, French Serge, 65c; a good 75c grade. 20 shades.

Likelier than not a Man's $10 All-wool Suit will be your test of the Clothing store—Fall or Winter. It's a sort of standard, even if your mind is on a higher cost Suit. The goods, the quality, the style, make-up and finish are a starting point for you. Here they are, more money-full than we know of anything else in town.

The $12, $13.50 and $15 Suits—in black Chevoits rough and smooth-faced stuffs, small checks in Homespuns, and in silk mixtures—are a handsome host.

At $18, $20, $22.50, dozens of other styles—many of them only here, ready make.

The very tip-top of style for the young or youngish man is a double-breasted Vest with single-breasted Sack Coat—if the double-breasted Vest is right.

Men's Trousers at $2.50, strong, durable and all-wool, or $10 if you prefer—styles and styles between,

No dressier Reefer for the 6 to 15 year old boy than a softly shaggy Chinchilla, wool lined, with wide, notched Velveteen Collar. Here they are at $7.50 and $8.50.

The Reefer procession starts at $4.50—for a snug sailory affair, warm and sightly. Sizes 3 to 6.

For the boy of 3 to 10 years Leather Leggings, of course—stylish and so comfortable of a chilly day. Carefully selected leathers (real goat) and prices brought to a reachable point for almost anybody. Regular lengths $3.25 to $3.75; Fauntleroy, $3.75 to $5: Napoleon top, $4 25 to $5.50. Colors tan, wine, brown, black and red.

Suits range from toddlers' Kilts to Long Trouser rigs for biggest boys.

Double-breasted Junior Suits.
Russian Blouse Suits.
Primrose Vest Suits.
Zouave Suits.

Prices $6.50 to $13.50. An unequalled assortment.

At $3.50 we've an exceptionally good Suit for the Boy. Tough and stylish. But the $5 Suits (5 to 15 years) are even more remarkable; wider range of fabrics, better goods, added elegancies. Then, too, seams are double sewed, buttons really fast, and all the little things that help quality carefully looked to.

Boys' Suits at half a dozen other prices, and all of them as much out of the common.

Boys' Reefers, 3 to 7-year sizes. Heavy twilled English Serge, sailor collar, $4.50 and $5. Fancy mixtures and solid colors, edges bound in varying widths, $5, $6.50, $7.50, $8.50.

Blue Fur Beaver, $6.50, $7.50, $8.50.

Leather Leggings to complement the Reefers are novel in styles and dainty in colors. Prices well below those of a year ago.

In these days of little prices there's hardly a home that need be without pleasing or decorative Pictures.

Here are Pastels, for instance, at $2.50. Handsome productions, neatly framed. The Pastel range is up to $20 and includes fine work by such artists as Nichols, Hunt and Hoddick.

What Richard Malcolm Johnston has done for "cracker" life is akin to what Joel Chandler Harris has done for the Southern negro. He has given us graphic pictures of a peculiar people — and promises more. BOOK NEWS for October has Mr. Johnston's portrait and a sketch of his life.

BOOK NEWS readers get introductions to all the talked-of writers. More, they get glimpses of their works and discriminating estimates as well.

The whole universe of letters is the BOOK NEWS field. Its readers keep in close touch with everything of moment in literature from the births of books to the deaths of authors.
