OUR CANDIDATES!

FOR PRESIDENT

BENJAMIN HARRISON,

OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

WHITELAW REID,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR CONGRESS.

GEORGE M. RUSSUM.

OF CAROLINE.

MISSOURI Republicans claim that they will elect Warner, Republican, Governer of that state. One thing is certain, they have the Democrats badly scared and if they continue their good work they will soon have them on the run.

THE Democrats have now found that their new accession, MacVeagh, is proving to be a white Elephant on their hands and that his attack on Minister Egan is driving off many Irish votes, while he only brings one, and that too in a state where it will do them no good. The Republican party can well afford to trade Mr. MacVeagh's one vote for the hundreds of Irish votes his speeches will bring them.

SOME of the most sanguine Democrats now concede that Connecticut will cast her vote for Harrison. New Jersey too is giving the Democrats lots of worry, with so many of their ballot box stuffers in the penitentiary they find their hands tied, to a certain extent, for those who have been in the habit of doing their crooked work are afraid to take hold and work as they formerly did for fear they may join their companions behind the prison bars of their state. The Republicans on the other hand have a very popular state ticket and the chances now are that New Jersey will join in the tidal wave which now bids fair to swamp the Democracy.

THE Republican outlook is brightening every day. The Democrats have found that the rural district of New York, where "General Apathy" was supposed to be in full command, are fully alive to the situation and that the Republicans have gained largely in the registrations. They also find that one of their leading men who was sent out to see how the land laid in the interior, comes to headquarters and reports that the Republicans will come to New York city with 85,000 majority. Chief Croker laughed at him. He then told them that if he had made a mistake at all his figures were too small. They find now that their man was right, the figures were too small, and the probabilities now are that the Republicans will come to New York city with from 100,000 to 105,000. These figures have alarmed the Democrats, for they have never claimed over 85,000 majority with which to meet the Republicans at Harlem river, and they are now in a serious quandary where to get enough votes to overcome the probable Republican majority in the rural districts.

HON. GEORGE M. RUSSUM is making the most active canvass that has ever been made in this Congressional district, his prospects are daily brightening and it now looks as though the old First Congressional district would send a Republican to represent them at Washington. They cannot send a better man than Mr. Russum. Republicans, let us all do our whole duty in this matter and victory will crown our efforts.

More Evidence.

Here is more evidence of benefit of McKinley tariff. The following letter explains itself:

To the Editor of The Press:

SIR—The factories in Binghamton use annually about 50,000 yards silk plush for rocking chairs. Before the McKinley tariff we were paying and using English silk plush at $1.10 per yard. To-day we are buying the same quality of American manufacture at 90 cents per yard. We have no further use for English silk plush. Nor can we believe that tariff is always a tax. Yours.

WILKINSON & EASTWOOD.

Binghamton, Oct. 21.

Give the Democrats a Show.

If all the money in the country is being poured into the laps of baron manufacturers, why don't the Democrats scoop in some of it by getting into manufacturing? Or do the tariff laws prevent Democrats from engaging in manufacturing; or do Democrats despise money; or is it they haven't brains enough to start manufacturing establishments?

"The above, clipped from the New York Press, is published in the last issue of the UNION. We reply to these pertinent inquiries by saying that Democrats neither lie nor steal but labor to make an honest living in the sight of all men. Truth and honesty is the corner stone of their platform."—Greensboro' Free Press.

Brother Plummer when did this great Democratic reformation take place? What has become of Archer? Was not he a Democrat in good standing when he was sent to the Penitentiary? Where are the ballot box stuffers of New Jersey? Were they not good Democrats when they were placed behind the prison bars? Was not the noted Tweed Ring of New York composed of Simon pure Democrats when they filched their millions out of the city of New York? It look to us as though your memory was very deficient, when you preach "truth and honesty" for a party which has so many of its leading men retired from public life to positions within the walls of our state prisons.

A Case in Point.

Below we give a case so clear that all can fully understand its force, and especially our business men, who are more directly interested than any one else, read it:

To the Editor of the Press:

SIR—is there a city or village in this entire country that does not charge a tax for a license to peddlers to peddle their wares in the place? No; there is not. Why do they tax the peddler? In order that he may be made to pay part of the taxes of the place in which he comes to sell his goods. The regular merchants with whom he competes and who pay the taxes on their buildings or in rent have a right to be protected against the foreigner who does not pay any of the regular taxes nor rents, and who has no interest in the prosperty of the place.

Now does this fee for a license come out of the pockets of the people or out of the peddler's pocket? It certainly comes out of the peddler's pocket. How's that? Well, he sells his goods just as cheap when he pays the license fee as he would if he had none to pay. And he sells them cheaper when he enters a place with considerable competition than he does when he is in a town with no stores to compete with:

Now if it is good policy for a city or village to protect its home people by a tax on peddlers, why it is not also a good policy for Uncle Sam to tax Peddler John Bull and all the other foreigners who come here to sell in our country.

Constituticnality of Protective Tariff.

Mr. Reid, Republican candidate for Vice-President, in his letter of acceptance, issued last Tuesday, says, among other things:

"The constitutionality of a protective tariff has heretofore been thought established, A tariff bill avowedly for 'the encouragement and protection of manufactures' was carried through the First Congress by James Madison and was signed by George Washington. A third of a century later Andrew Jackson in a message to Congress (December 7, 1830) maintaining the constitutionality of the protective system, said: "In this conclusion I am confirmed as well by the opinions of Presidents Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe, who have each repeatedly recommended the exercises of this right under the Constitution, as by the uniform practice of Congress, the continued acquiescence of the state and the general understanding of the people." To this testimony from the men who made the Constitution and from the father of the modern Democrtic party may be added that of the latest high authority of that party on constitutional law."

Wanamaker's

PHILADELPHIA Monday, Oct. 24 1891.

A strictly All-wool Diagonal Cheviot at 37½c.

We believe this the best 37½ cents worth in Dress Goods shown anywhere in America to-day.

It was woven and dyed as a 60c stuff. You've paid this season 50c and maybe more for no better.

Weight of a fine imported Broadcloth, and full 36 inches.

Nothing rough or mean about it, either to eye or hand.

Half a score choice colors.

Whether in Box Coats or Reefers or Cutaways or any of the other sorts of over-wear for women, there's an exactly right shape—as Fashion fixes it. Oftener than not the styles of the stores are got up haphazard — cross-cutting to "cheapness" by every possible road, and bumping into dowdiness or downright meanness every now and again.

Every requirement of good style and good service may be met without the sacrifice of one element of worthy cheapness.

Here are a few of the evidence; there's a storefull more:

At $5.00—Ribbed Beaver English Box Reefers, full back, correct sleeves, lapped seams, horn buttons, tailor finish.

At $6.00—Tan striped Diagonal Reefers, lapped seams, half lined with changeable silk, French horn buttons.

At $6.50—Walking Coat of Diagonal Cheviot, seams bound, tailor made and finished.

At $7.50—Smooth-feaced Beaver Cloth Reefer, full shawl collar of black Astrakhan, seams all bound, loop fastenings.

At $8.50—English Walking Coat of Wide Wale Cheviot, half tight falling back half lined with heavy satin, bound throughout with wide mohair, covered buttons.

At $9.00—Double-breasted Reefer of Cheviot Cloaking 34 inches long, with watteau plait, back seams finished and fronts lined with black silk.

At $10.00—Double-breasted Rrefer of Vicuua-finished Cheviot, large French sleeves, lapped seams, notched collar, tailor made and finished, covered buttons.

At $10.50—English Box Reefers of Boucle-finished Cheviot three-quarter back with loose double-breasted front, lapped seams.

At $11.00—English Walking Coat of Boucle-finished Cheviot, loose back, double-breasted front, inlaid velvet collar, seams all bound.

Wanamaker's

At $12.00—Fine Vicuna-finished 34-inch Cheviot Walking Coat, fly front, front and sleeves lined with Satin Rhadame, bound throughout with narrow mohair

And so on up to some of the finest and handsomest creations of both hemispheres.

Ulsters, Newmarkets and all the Long Garment list are as you would have them—prices, too, almost.

So of Capes and all that.

Women's Fur Neck Scarfs.

The unexpected has happened. Nearly a thousand rich Fur Neck Scarfs have come to us so that we can hand them out at just about the old prices.

Dark Mink Scarfs at $6 and $7.
Extra Dark Mink Scarfs at $8 and $9.
Extra Dark and Long Mink Scarfs, some in special shapes, at $10, $12, $14.
Stone Marten Scarfs, $9.50 to $14.
Hudson Bay Sable Scarfs, $10 to $16; very large choice, new curved shape, $20.
Genuine Russian Sable Scarfs, $30 to $60.

One hundred Canada Seal Head Scarfs at $5 and $6, and Baum Marten at $8 to $14 are also in this exceptionally attractive lot.

So are Scarfs in Astrakhan, Persian Lamb, Thibet, Krimmer, Otter and other popular Furs. Some of the Thibet Scarfs in white and beautiful tints, have been put at $5.50. Girls will delight in them; they match the favorite Cloaking shades.

Men's Business Suits.

Just the right stuffs, Just the right styles. Assortment wide enough to cover any fancy; cost little enough to accommodate almost any purse.

All-wool Black Cheviot with sack coat, $12.
All-wool Cheviots in small checks, $10.
Small checks with double and single-breasted sack coat, at $12, $13.50 and $15.
Cheerful Homespuns, with single-breasted sack and double-breasted vest, $16.50, $18 and $20.
Volour Cloths in plaids, brown and gray, beautiful designs, single-breasted coat, double-breasted vest, $22.50.
Dress Suits of black Diagonals (Clay weave), $15, $18, $20, $22, $25, $30 and $40.
Excellent line of Men's All-wool Trousers at $2.50 and $3.

The swell Overcoats for men's Winter wear are cut long with full back and are either single or double-breasted. In Meltons and Kerseys, $15 to $45.

Genuine Sedan Montagncas (black and blue), silk lined, velvet piping, $55.

Good Oxford Melton Overcoats. double-breasted, $10; black rough Cheviot, single-breasted, $15 and $18.

Men's Homespun Suits, $12 to $30.

Book Cases. Sorts and sorts till you tire of looking. For $6, for $140.00, for a hailstorm of betweeners.

Come with any Book Case want and the size, shape and price to exactly meet it almost surely awaits you.

Oak Book Cases, open fronts, with brass rod for curtain, $6 to $20.
Antique Oak Book Cases, single glass door, $10 to $28; also in Walnut.
