C. Pernie Esq

Baltimore Sept 15 1834

Dear Sir,

Yours of 12 inst is rec. and annexed you have an account Sales of all your Wool but Bale No 9. in nett am. $365.67 to your credit due Feby 26 & March next which we hope will be found correct and satisfactory. We delayed writing from day to day hoping that we should sell Bale No 9 and then we could give you sales of the entire Invoice.
The remaining Bale we hope to sell soon and when we do, we will forward you the account at once. The wool you will perceive has fallen short in weight considerably. We have a very correct Balance with which we weighed it, and it was weighed with much care. We are this year obliged to sell a great portion of our wool on a credit of 6m. and by selling yours on that time we obtained a much higher price than the difference of interest. In fact there has been no fine wool sold in this market (to our knowledge) at any thing over forty five cents pr lb Yours Lyman Reed & Co.
