Dear Sir

I have found a man who from his character I think would suit you - He has a wife and one child - He wishes to know what wages you will give, and what privileges in the way of living, as to house & ground - He says that the vine should be attended to at this time - and he would be ready & willing to be with you in - a week or ten days after he hears the terms, if they suite - Please write on the receipt of this

[redacted]ours respectfully

Mr Birnie I have been looking for you to fulfill your promise to Mr Galt as the scarsity of money makes me want the amt you owe me. You will please comply as soon as possible & oblige

Yours &c

William Greaves

Mr Galt told me he went to Davy town twice you had appointed to meet him and found himself disappointed: your sheet that was left here is at Mr McNulls where you can get it at any time
