conclude what course is to be taken – In our common concerns in Money matters – we know not what kind of Bank Notes to take – and those who want to use large sums, find that Specie is very troublesome to carry about, and as for a Note of the U. S. Bank – I never now see one in circulation –

I hope for the best, and trust that the wrath of our public-Men – too much indulged at present, will soon subside – and that they will begin to do something for the good of the Country – Betsy joins in friendly respects to Mrs. Bivins and your Family with

yrs. truly

A. Maynadier