Dear Sir

I this mourning Rd your letter on the subject of the Jacks & Jenny

I met to see Mr Boyers whose Stable they were at They have been taken to Tennessee a few weeks a go — and there is none in this neighbourhood at present

Mr Boyers says that the Rail Road Company has five or six Mules (very large) that have been Crippled they are running at large near Baltimore he thinks that a good set might be got there by any person that had judgment about their Ailments for a trifle / Boyers is a Horse Doctor and a Trader and has had his Wagon on the Rail Road in the Early part of the winter — he is a man of Judgment in this way —
