Mr Birnie

I would willingly let you have straw, if I had it spare, I have but a few bundles, and will have to buy myself. Flour I have not enough to supply the neighbourhood.

J. Wesphall

My Dr Friend,

Your splendid heifer Young Matchless died on Sunday last at 4 o'clock P.M. in a painless effort to give birth to her calf. She had every assistance which five of the best and most skilful professional men could give her. The calf had been dead for ten days and was in a rapid state of decomposition. Its size was the cause

My dear Father

Sam left Boston after day light to go towards yr house — Bost pocketted $100 yesterday I told him he must give you $25 for the Town Church. Matthias is hurt hearing you charged him with want of success before the Ors Ct but I put that at rights but told him you did feel hurt at his saying on yr showing him the bounds of the 319 acres "that he saw the lines but did not know what was in it" He declares all intention of the slightest intimation as to impropriety on yr part & is anxious to see you when he can explain The fact is he feels hurt that you should suspect him of having any other than the most friendly

I have an application from the west to know what is the lowest price you will take for your bulls Brilliant and President — the gentleman wants one but wishes to know the price of each. I shall receive an answer by the 29th instant