Sadder If Not Wiser.

Some months ago Miss Maggie Hyde, a pretty young woman of Fannin county, Ga., answered an advestisement in a matrimonial paper, inserted by a prosperous farmer of Gumboro hundred, Sussex county, Delaware. The correspondence thus begun continued until the epsiltory acquaintance changed to friendship, and friendship ripened into love. Then a proposal was made and accepted and the Sussex man journeyed to Georgia to claim his bride. So they were married, and the twain returned to Sussex and lived a short but happy honeymoon, until the bride made the startling discovery that her husband was a bigamist. To her dismay and shame, she learned that he had two other wives living, and packing up her personal effects she fled from the Sussex farmhouse of her deceptive husband, and two weeks ago hired with a Georgetown family as kitchen girl in order to earn enough money to take her back to her Southern home. She wrote to her parents a sorrowful letter and begged that money be sent to her at once. On Wednesday of last week the letter came, with it were several crisp bank notes. Sadder, if not wiser, the young woman left the following day for her Georgia home.—Cor. Philadelphia Record.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remdies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their popularity purely on their merits. George & Redden, Druggist.

Maryland Dashes.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who keeps eighty servants in her home in Scotland, and is considered to be the one woman in Great Britian who has come closest to a solution of the servant-girl problem, will tell of her methods of treating her help, etc., in an article for The Ladies' Home Journal entitled "How I Keep My Servants."

A RESULT.

Before assuring your life or investing your money, examine the Twenty-Year Tontine Policies of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S.

Policies maturing in 1892 realize cash returns to the owners of amounts varying from 120 to 176 per cent. of the money paid in, besides the advantage of the Assurance during the whole period of twenty years.

The following is one of many actual cases maturing this year:

Endownment Policy No. 70,450.
Issued 1872, at age 30. Amount $10,000.
Premium, $485.30.
Total Premiums paid, $9,706,00.

RESULTS

at End of Tontine Period in 1892

Cash Surrender Value,
$16,321.20.

(Being a return of $168.16 for each $100 paid in premiums, which is equivalent to a return of all premiums paid, with interest at the rate of 6½ per cent. annum).
Or, in lieu of cash,

A Paid-up Life Policy for $34,050.00

(Equal to $360.09 for each $100 paid in premiums). Or

A Life Annuity of $1,300.00.

One fact is worth a thousand theories. There is no assurance extant in any company which compares with this. The Equitable is the strongest company in the world and transacts the largest business.
