To Mr Bennie

Dear Sir! Since the receipt of your reply I have called twice on Mr Bingham; yesterday I found him much engaged, but promised if he could to think about it; the first time a Waggoner I believe had just left: perhaps you will be good enough to devise one to call on me in Lambton St making with him an arrangement to bring up the horse and settling with him the expense incurred. —

If the horse is unemployed I should suppose oats would be unnecessary
