AN ACCIDENT TO AN AERONAUT.—Professor Shotts, an aeronaut, made a balloon ascension at Marietta, Ohio, on the 12th instant. When about one hundred feet high the balloon burst.—Prof. S. came down standing in his basket, alighting on the levee. Singular as it may seem, the only injury he appears to have sustained was a badly mashed ankle.

THE FUSION IN NEW YORK.—Our Albany correspondent telegraphs that news of the proposed fusion has thrown Cagger & Co. into dismay, and that Richmond has started hot foot for this city, to endeavor to break it up. But it is too late. The ball has been started, and the people will accept the fusion without the politicians. Should Richmond refuse to ratify the arrangement his subordinates have blundered into, then all that will be wanting is that the great Union meeting which is soon to come off in this city shall present a Union ticket of ten Breckinridge, ten Bell and fifteen Douglas electors, and appoint a Vigilance Committee to see that the corrupt political managers do not sell themselves to Lincoln and attempt to burke it. The merchants and property holders of this city, whose vast interests are at stake, should at once raise one hundred thousand dollars for the expenses of the election, and confide it to the Union Vigilence Committee to see that it is honestly expended in printing and circulating documents, and other necessary and proper expenditures. By so doing New York can be carried against Lincoln without a doubt, and the national conservative interests of this metropolis will have defeated the revolutionary and destructive designs of the Black Republican and abolition fanatics. Let every man prepare for the work.—N. Y. Herald.

(From the N. Y. Herald of Wednesday.)

Extraordinary Activity of the Fall Trade.—The fall trade is opening at an advanced period and with unusual activity this season. The city is full of purchasers from all quarters of the country, and the business promises to be one of the largest and most profitable we have ever enjoyed. The abundant harvests of the West, and the fine cotton crop of the South—which, notwithstanding the partial drought which visited some of the Southwestern states, is exceedingly large—have imparted a wonderful stimulus to trade in the metropolis.

The only danger now to the realization of the magnificent promises of commercial prosperity before the people, is the fear that this sectional agitation party of Lincoln and Seward may be successful—a party which, if it attains power, will disturb all the relations of the county, political and commercial, which may lead to local insurrections and general anarchy.—With such a prospect before them, it is not to be expected that people will base much upon so uncertain a future, and the wonder is that business is so active just now even as it is.

AFFAIRS IN ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY. The Annapolis Republican of Saturday, contains the following items:

A New County.—We learn that a petition is now being signed for presentation to the next Legislature, for the purpose of forming a new county of the lower portion of this county, known as South and West River, having Owensville for its county town.

Sad Bereavement.—But a few weeks ago the family circle of the Hon, William H Purnell, of this city, was gladdened by the presence of five happy children, the pride of a fond mother and the idols of a doting father. The hearthstone was enlivened by the joyous shout and merry laugh of the guiltless little ones. The home circle was decorated by their presence and the ringing peals of childish glee pictured the summit of earthly bliss.—But now how changed! The joyous shout and merry laugh is lost in the gloom of sepulchral silence. The ringing laugh of childish glee has sunk in the depth of eternal silence and the car of love alone is mocked with its plaintive echo. Why is this? Of the five who composed this happy family group, four now sleep in the arms off death, and the last of that happy throng now lies prostrate beneath the hand of the same fell destroyer. 'Tis indeed a sad bereavement, and the entire community join us in sympathy and condolence with the sorrowing family whom death has robbed of its purest joys.

Consequences of Lincoln's Election.—We say that the election of Abraham Lincoln, like a wrathful thunderbolt of the Great Jehovah, would shake the earth to the remotest bounds of civilization and agitate the waters to the antipodes. And all good citizens who desire peace, and prosperity, and a cessation of sectional agitation, should weigh well the consequences of their votes on the 6th of November.—Philadel. Monitor.

Happincss.—Now let me tell you a secret—a secret worth hearing. This looking forward for enjoyment don't pay.—From what I know of it, I would as soon chase butterflies for a living, or bottle up moonshine for cloudy nights. The only true way to happiness is to take the drops of happiness as God gives them to us every day of our lives, the boy must learn to be happy when he is plodding over his lesson; the apprentice while he is learning his trade; the merchant while he is making his fortune. If he fails to learn this art, he will be sure to miss his enjoyment when he gains that he sighs for.
