Mr Moore Clerk of the Circuit Court of the United States fourth Circuit Maryland District

In all the Cases on the Trial Docket of November Term 1820 wherein the Bank of the United States Plaintiffs, and Judgment is entered as in No 69 (Bank of United States adrs George Williams) the Memorandum at the bottom of the Rem in No 69 relating to the Citizenship of Drawer and Payee is to be made on each Declaration so as to form a part of the Record, and the entry or agreement in relation to the discharge of the Defendants under the General Insolvent Laws of Maryland is also to be made, so as to form a part of the Record. The Plaintiffs Attorney is to be at liberty at any time to enter up the Releases of the Respective Judgments either from the notes or from the Declarations, without producing any further order or agreement signed by the Counsel for Defendants. The Judgments in all the Cases are Taken upon the Counts in the General Rem, similar to those in No 69, Mutatis Mutandis where the Rem are against endorsers, and all the other Counts are to be stricken out out of the Rem.
