The Result in Maryland.—The friends of Mr. Breckinridge must be easily consoled indeed if they can find any even minute grains of comfort in the condition of political affairs in Baltimore. Those who base the hope of Breckinridge's carrying the State upon the result of the recent municipal election, either deceive themselves or endeavor to deceive others. An analysis of the vote on that occasion will show at once how fallacious are such expectations. The aggregate vote for Brown was about seventeen thousand. It will not be denied that this included the whole democratic vote of the city. Of this the Douglas men claim six or seven thousand. They are entitled to at least five thousand. The vote for Brown included also from three to five thousand, say three thousand five hundred German votes, which will, in November, be unquestionably given to Lincoln. It included also, at least, two thousand five hundred Bell and Everett votes.

The vote in the Presidential election will without doubt be a fuller one than that cast in the municipal contest. It will reach probably thirty thousand, which will be five thousand less than a full vote of the city.—Admitting, therefore, that as many as twelve hundred of those who voted for Hinds will in November vote for Lincoln, [illegible] hundred of such voters,) the statement of the vote of the city in November will stand thus: Of the Brown vote, Douglas 5,000, Bell and Everett 2,500, German Republicans 3,500, making 11,000, which being deducted from the 17,000 for Brown, leaves only 6,000 votes for Breckinridge. This will be a liberal allowance for the candidate of Disunion Democracy. Let us see then how the account will stand. Breckinridge and Lane, 6,000; Douglass and Johnson, 5,000; Lincoln and Lamlin, 4,700, and Bell and Everett the balance of the vote, or 12,300, if the aggregate vote should be only 27,000, or 14,300, if the aggregate vote should reach 30,000.

This is a fair analysis. If there is any error it is in the relative apportionment of the Republican and Breckinridge portions of the vote for Brown, which will not materially vary the result. The defection of twelve hundred Hines votes to Lincoln is all that the most extravagant have claimed, and is much greater than will be realized. It will thus be seen that there is not the slightest probability that there will not be a large majority for Bell and Everett in Baltimore, which added to the three or four thousand majority conceeded to them in the counties, will give them the State by a majority of from five to seven thousand, and a plurality from ten to twelve thousand.

We give our readers the figures. They can make the calculation themselves, but there is no way they can make it which will afford a shadow of hope for the Breckinridge faction in Maryland. We appeal, therefore, to the people of Maryland to stand fast by the Union standard and gird up their loins for the coming contest.—Balt. Clipper.

A Large Catfish.—"Fisherman's luck" cured Tuesday: a gentleman named N. D. Short, while fishing near the brewery, caught an enormous specimen of a fish. It was five feet, eight inches, in length, and measured three feet and four inches around the body. The weight of it was 117 pounds—Kansas Times.

Sixty years ago a naval officer wishing to cross from Staten Island to Bergen, could find no person willing to undertake the job save a barefooted boy, who despite the roughness of the sea, bravely rowed him to the place of destination. The officer was so pleased with his pluck that he got him a situation on a steamer.—That boy was Cornelius Vanderbilt who is now worth over 13,000,000.

Startling Development.—We are informed that two men named Hitchings, father and son, were apprehended at Clio Marlboro. District, on Thursday, and were taken to Bennettsville. Their trunks were search d, and disclosed the nefarious purpose of tampering with slaves, and of putting arms in their hands It is thought they were executed yesterday morning at Bennettsville. A box filled with pistols, directed to them, has been seized at Florence. Their correspondence showed further that 1200 arms were to be delivered to them at Wilmington, N. C—*Charleston (S. C.) At his residence near Denton, on Tuesday the 16th inst., after a protracted illness, Mr. Charles Cottingham in the 53d year of his age. The deceased was an estimable citizen and possessed many virtues that endeared him to his neighbors and friends. Delaware papers please copy.

No more we hear thy steady tread,
No longer thy reproof,
No longer moves that silvery head
That guarded us in youth.

No longer doth thy finger point,
Or thy tongue gladly tell
The way that leads to Heaven so clear,
From those that leads to Hell.

That voice is hush'd—God called away
The one to us so dear,
Though hard it is, we should obey
Thy will, O, God with fear.

Peace to thee—thy end was peace
Well fought was all of death
Truly, he who wins this race
Wins by his deeds through life. W.

Russell, Mrs. Rathburn, Mrs. M. F. Ames, Miss S. A. Browne, Miss E. Bogart, Miss Harriet M. Baum and Miss R. S. Clarke.

The greatest destinguishing features of the "Newspaper," are Utility, Infoamation and Variety; an Agricultural Department, a Department of Science and Art, with a Little Space for Wit and Humor.

The story department is made up almost wholly of Original Stories, from the best authors that prompt and liberal payment can draw to its columns. No other family paper pays out more for original reading, and, as may be naturally supposed, no other paper publishes more or better story reading.

The Agricultural department each week, occupies some three of the long columns of the Newspaper, and is a most interesting feature of the paper, being wholly original, and comprising the usual variety for the Farmer and Land Owner, the Orchardist and Gardner, the Dairyman and Apiarian, the Grazier and Breeder, and for all who are interested in the Poultry Yard, Natural History, Rural Architecture, Agricultural Shows, new implements and plants, as well as for the housewife and the fireside, Science and the Mechanic Arts. Under this head may be weekly found a column devoted to Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Patents Inventions, Improvements in Machinery, Engineering, &c., the aim being to present all subjects discussed, in a plain and popular form. Original Letters, &c. From writers in the country we shall have weekly letters, descriptive of the resources, character and habits of the people in various sections of the Union. Letters from Washington of the political movements of parties, letters from New York, of the business doings of that great Commercial centre, will be continued, and in the midst of a great Presidential canvass, as the country is, these letters will have especial interest.

The News and Market Reports, In office machinery and other facilities for printing a cheap Family Paper the Dollar Newspaper is unequalled. With monster machines capable of printing 20,000 copies per hour, its columns can be held open for news to within a few hours of the date of publication. It is thus enabled topublish the latest and most reliable market reports.
