MARRIAGE GUIDE.

BEING a private instructor for married persons or those about to be married, both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and ralations of our sexual system, and the production or prevention of offspring including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain languages for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents, in specie or postage stamps. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce St. above 4th, Philadelphia, Pa.

Afflicted and Unfortunate.

No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of either of Dr. Young's Books and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

DR. YOUNG, can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his Office. No. 419 Spruce st., above Fourth. sept. 11–1y.

Complete in one large duodecimo volume, neatly bound in cloth, for One Dollar and twenty-five cents, or in two volumes, paper cover, for one dollar.

THE Publishers take great pleasure in being able to present to the American public another new and charming work by the pouplar American Authoress, Mrs. Emma Southworth. She is excelled by no living female writer in the world.—Her style is free from insipidity on the one hand and bombast on the other; and though we meet with forcible we are never startled with inflated language. Her characters are rarely under, but never overdrawn. Her scenes are life pictures, her incidents founded on facts, and her sentiments are characterized by a singular purity both of conception and expression. She has the rare faculty of saving it in such a manner as that her meaning cannot be misinterpeted. In short, she possesses in an eminent degree those qualifications which are the peculiar prerogatives of a writer, while she delights the reader's imagination with her descriptive beauty she applies home truths to their understanding with the force of rational conviction. The 'Haunted Homestead' has been pronounced by those who have read the proof-sheets, to be her best work. This is sufficient to commend it to perusal, and we anticipate for it a great popularity.—For sale by all Booksellers.

☞ Copies of either edition of the work, will be sent to any part of the United States, free of Postage, on remitting the price of the edition they may wish, to the publishers, in a letter.

A WEEKLY PAPER,

Devoted to Literature, News, Romance, Science and Art.

John B. Williams, } Editors & Prop.
Charles H. Moore. }

PROSPECTUS.

It is a well known fact that the South is now almost entirely dependent on the North for its hebdomadal literature. It is to be seen whether the Southern States cannot support a literary journal of its own. The parties undertaking this new enterprise are determined to spare no effort or expense to produce a paper which shall effect this purpose, and deserve a share of the support of the reading public. Such a paper, it is hoped, will arouse the somewhat dormant literary condition of our city, develop the inactive talent, and offer at our own doors a vehicle for the expression of thought, interchange of ideas, and the imparting of new items of information.

The FAMILY JOURNAL will contain Original Stories, Sketches of Travel, Biographical Essays, a Summary of News, domestic and foreign, Reviews of Books, Dramatic and Musical Criticisms, reports of Popular Lectures and such genral information as will make it a welcome guest in very family. The proprietors are determined that their journal shall be second to none in the variety, interest and value of its contents, in its literary excellence and high moral tone. Politics and Sectarianism will be most rigidly excluded.

Particular attention paid to "answers to correspondents," a talented gentleman having been specially engaged for that purpose.

Arrangements have been already made with a distinguished corps of American contributors, and negociations are still in progress which will ultimately secure the best talent in the country. It is intended that the literary matter in this journal shall be chiefly original, and the appropriation from foreign sources, without acknowledgment, in the newspapers of the day, is already too frequent. Should any article be selected on account of its superior excellence, credit will be invariably given where it is due.

Terms invariably in advance.
