A PROCLAMATION

By the Governor Of Maryland.

MARYLAND, SS.—To the People of the State.

Peace, prosperity, and blessings without number to the State have crowned the year now drawing to its close.

While in other lands pestilence or scarcity have spread misery or want and war, even for right and liberty, has desolated homes; for us, the earth, with unaccustomed energy, has poured forth her abundance. Commerce and industry have revived; health and prosperity have dwelt amongus.

It is the bounded duty of a Christian people to acknowledge these blessings by some public act of gratitude.

It is very right that in a Christian State, some day should be designated to that end by the civil authority.

In conformity, therefore, with the usage established by my predecessors in office, sanctioned by the acquiescence and approval of the people, I, Thomas Holliday Hicks, Governor of Maryland, do, by this, my Proclamation, designate and appoint THURSDAY, the 29th day of November, instant, to be observed throught this State as a Holyday of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

And I cordially invite all good people of this State then to lay aside sheir customary business, and wordly vocations; and unite, in their respective places of Worship, or at their homes, on that day, with the people of other states, in public and private acts of Devotion and gratitude to Almighty God.

I invite them also, in offering to Him thanksgiving for favors past and present, that they earnestly implore His protection and blessing for time to come.

That He will continue to us the fruits of the earth; and make sure the reward of labor:

That he will grant us health, prosperity and peace.

That dissension and strife may depart from among us; that concord and love of country may prevail:

That those in authority may have his guidance; so disposing the hearts of the people, and ordering the State, that the happiness and peace, the power and abundance, with all the unnumbered blessings, which, through this Union, the God of our fathers gave to them, and to us, may suffer no diminution, through our follies of the crimes; but, safeguarded through His favor, descend to our children's children.

THOMAS H. HICKS.

SEAL Given under my hand and the Great Seal of Maryland, hereunto affixed, at the Executive Chamber, in the City of Annapolis, this seventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and to the Union and Independance of the United States, the eighty-fifth.
