A TOUCHING STORY.

[illegible]e following affecting narrative [illegible]orts to have been given by a father to his son, as a warning derived from his own bitter experience of grieving and resisting a mother's love and counsel.

What agony was visible in my mother's face when she saw that all she said and suffered failed to move me! She rose to go home and I followed at a distance. She spoke no more to me till she reached her own door.

"It is school time now," said she,—"Go, my son, and once more let me beseech you to think upon what I have said."

"I shan't go to school," says I.

She looked astonished at my coldness, but replied firmly—

"Certainly you will go, Alfred; I command you."

"I will not," said I, in a tone of defiance.

"One of two things you must do, Alfred—either go to school this morning or I will lock you in your room and keep you there till you are ready to promise implicit obedience to my wishes in the future."

"I dare you to do it; you can't get me up stairs."

"Alfred, choose now," said my mother who laid her hand upon my arm. She trembled violently and was deadly pale.

"If you touch me I'll kick you," said I, in a terrible rage. God knows I knew not what I said.

"Will you go, Alfred?"

"No," I replied, but I quailed beneath her eye.

"Then follow" me, she said, as she grasped my arm firmly.

I raised my foot—oh, my son, hear me—I raised my foot and kicked her—my sainted mother! How my head reels as the torrent of memory rushes over me! I kicked my mother, a feeble woman—my mother! She staggered back a few steps and leaned against the wall. She did not look at me—I saw her heart beat against her breast.

"Oh! Heavenly Father," said she, "forgive him—he knows not what he does!"

The gardener just then passed the door, and seeing my mother pale and almost unable to support herself, stopped. She beckoned him in.

"Take this boy up stairs and lock him in his room," said she, and turned from me. Looking back as she was entering her room, she gave such a look of agony mingled with the most intense love!—it was the last unutterable pang from a heart that was broken.

In a moment I found myself a prisoner in my own room. I thought for a moment that I would fling myself from the open window and dash my brains out, but I felt afraid to do it—I was not penitent. At times my heart was subdued; but my stubborn pride rose in an instant and bade me not yield.

The pale face of my mother haunted me. I flung myself on the bed and fell asleep. Just at twilight I heard a footstep approach the door. It was my sister.

"What may I tell my mother for you?" she asked.

"Nothing," I replied.

"Oh, Alfred! for my sake, for all our sakes, say that you are sorry.—She longs to forgive you."

I would not answer. I heard her footsteps slowly retreating, and again I threw myself on the bed to pass another wretched and fearful night.

Another footstep, slower and feebler than my sister's disturbed me. A voice called me by name. It was my mother's.

"Alfred, my son, shall I come?" she asked.

I cannot tell what influence, operating at that moment, made me speak adverse to my feelings. The gentle voice of my mother melted my obdurate heart and thrilled through me, and I longed to throw myself on her neck, but I did not. But my words gave the lie to my heart when I said that I was not sorry. I heard her withdraw. I heard her groan. I longed to call her back. But I did not.

I was awakened from my uneasy slumber by hearing my name loudly called, and my sister stood at my bedside.

"Get up, Alfred. Oh, don't wait a minute. Get up and come with me.—Mother is dying!"

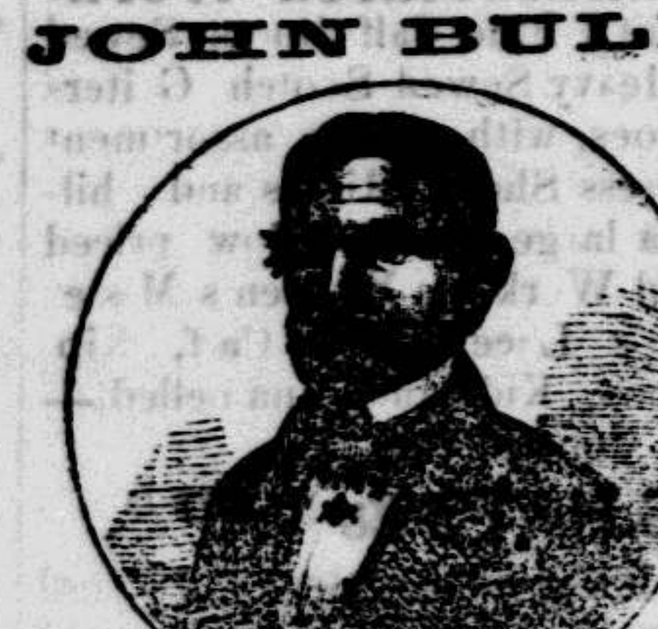

I thought I was yet dreaming, but I got up mechanically and followed my sister. On the bed, and as cold as marble, lay my mother. She was not undressed. She had thrown herself on the bed to rest! arising to go again to me, she was seized with palpitation of the heart, and borne senseless to her room.

I cannot tell you with what agony I looked upon her; my remorse was tenfold greater from the fact that she would never know it. I believe myself to be her murderer. I fell on the bed beside her. I could not weep. My heart burned in my bosom; my brain was on fire. My sister threw her arms around me and wept in silence. Suddenly we saw a slight motion of my mother's hand—her eyes unclosed.—She had recovered consciousness but not speech. She looked at me and moved her lips—I could not understand her words. "Mother! mother," I shrieked, "say only that you forgive me!" She could not say it with her lips, but her hand pressed mine. She smiled upon me and lifting her thin white hands, she clasped my own within them, and cast her eyes upward. She moved her lips in prayer, and thus she died.

I remained still kneeling beside that dear form till my gentle sister removed me. The joy of life had gone forever!

Boys who spurn a mothers control, who are ashamed to own that they are wrong, who think it manly to resist her authority or yield to her influence, beware! Lay not up for yourselves bitter memories for future years.

DOCTOR
JOHN BULL.

THE GREAT
KENTUCKY REMEDY'
DR. JOHN BULL'S SARSAPARILLA.

This medicine, when used according to directions, will cure, without fail:—

Scrofula,
or King's Evil,
Cancers, Eruptions
of the Skin, Erysipelas,
Tumors, Chronic Sore Eyes,
Ringworm or Tetters, Scald Head,
Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones or Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Swelling of the Glands, Syphilis, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Diseases arising from the use of Mercury, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Side and Shoulders, General Debility, Lumbago, Coughs, Colds, Dropsy, Jaundice, Costiveness, Bronchitis, Weakness of the Chest, Sore Throat, Pulmonary Affections, and all other Diseases tending to produce Consumption, Liver Complaints, Female Irregularities and Complaints, Low
Spirits, Sick and Nervous Headache, Night
Sweats, Exposures, or Imprudence in Life,
Chronic Constitutional Diseases, and as a
Spring and Summer Drink, and General
Tonic for the System, and a gentle and pleasant purgative, it is superior to Blue Lick
and Congress Water,
Salts, or Seidlitz
Powders.

It is a remarkable fact, that among the hundreds of eminent physicians who have examined the recipe by which Bull's Sarsaparilla is prepared, not one has condemned it, but all approved it, and commend it in the highest terms. Many physicians express themselves strongly in the belief that it is decidedly the best preparation of Sarsaparilla that has ever been placed before the public. Although there are many physicians who feel a reluctance to having their names appended to the recommendation of any particular remedy, notwithstanding they may approve of it in the highest degree, there are others who frankly yield their support in favor of a remedy which they know is capable of doing so much good in an afflicted community. As an evidence, read the following from old and respectable physicians, of high standing in the community in which they live:

TESTIMONY.

☞ Testimony like the following renders superfluous all comments on the efficacy of Bull's Sarsaparilla. From Dr. L. P. Yandell, Professor of Chemistry in the Louisville Medical College: I have looked over the list of ingredients composing John Bull's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and have no hesitation in saying that they form a safe compound, and one that promises well in chronic diseases, to which it is applicable. L. P. YANDELL, M. D.
Louisville, June 6, 1848.

What Dr. Pyles, physician by appointment to the Louisville Marine Hospital, says of Bull's Sarsaparilla:
LOUISVILLE, March 30, 1848.
I have examined the prescription for the preparation of John Bull's Sarsaparilla, and I believe the combination to be an excellent one, and well calculated to produce an alterative impression on the system. I have used it both in public and private practice, and think it the best article of Sarsaparilla now in use.
M. PYLES, M. D.,
Resident Physician Louisville Marine Hospital.

LONDON, KY., April 25th, 1850.
SIR—Permit me to address to you a few lines, and do me the honor to reply to a request that I will make in the conclusion of this letter, etc.
I am a graduate of Transylvania Medical University; I have practiced medicine in this wilderness country, about five years, but owing to exposure to bitter cold weather, I have been indisposed with Acute Rheumatism about six months. After having exhausted my skill in the treatment of my case, and deriving no benefit, I was induced to give your FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA a fair trial, and accordingly purchased a bottle of your medicine from your agent, Mr. George P. Brown, about two weeks ago, and I must confess that one bottle has entirely cured me.
It is my opinion, that your preparation of Sarsaparilla is decidedly superior to any other preparation now in use, and I will take great pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as being a remedial agent, and I will advise the physicians to use it in their practice, etc.
Respectfully yours, B. B. ALLEN, M. D.

LOUISVILLE, July 13th, 1849.
I have examined the list of articles that compose John Bull's Extract of Sarsaparilla, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is a safe and valuable compound. I would prefer it to any article now in use, for the diseases arising from an impure state of the blood or taint of the system. I confidently recommend it to my friends as being a powerful Extract, and one that I believe will cure all classes of diseases, for which it is recommended. If used according to directions. I believe it to be a valuable succedaneum to Mercury.— Nay, I have my doubts whether in the most violent and protracted cases of Syphilis, accompanied with Nodes Trophe, in caries of the bones, whether it ought not to succeed every other remedy.
S. R. McCONACHIE, M. D.
Honorary member of the Medical Society, Philadelphia.

☞ Hear, what Dr. Stapp, a physician who stands at the top of his profession, says of John Bull's Sarsaparilla:
I have been using John Bull's Sarsaparilla, in a great variety of chronic diseases, with the most happy effects, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to the public for the cure of scrofula, syphilis, and all cutaneous and glandular diseases. Yours, most fervently, Lewisport, Ky., April 5, 1849. WM. STAPP, M. D.

Rev. E. W. SEHON,—Rev. E. STEVENSON.
CONCLUSIVE.—Rev. E. W. Sehon is widely and generally known as an eloquent and accomplished pastor of the M. E. church, and Rev. E. Stevenson has been known as one of the most talented and zealous members that the Kentucky Conference could boast of for many years, and at this time is filling the high and responsible station of agent of the M. E. Book Concern.
LOUISVILLE, May 20th, 1849.
We have used John Bull's Sarsaparilla, and have known it to be used, with entire satisfaction; and we have no hesitation in stating our belief, that it is a safe and valuable medical compound, and calculated to produce much good and relieve much suffering; and, therefore would cheerfully and most earnestly recommend it to the afflicted.
(Signed) E. W. SEHON.
E. STEVENSON.

We earnestly invite all persons who are suffering with any of the ills that flesh is heir to, to call on Dr. John Bull's agent, and get a copy of Bull's Family Journal gratis; and for the sake of humanity, we hope that a single individual will not be found unwilling to give Bull's Sarsaparilla a TRIAL, after reading, and recollecting, at the same time, that it is impossible for the Doctor to publish the tenth part of the number of certificates of astounding cures peformed by his Sarsaparilla. The amount of testimony voluntarily showered on Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla from well known and distinguished individuals, both in public and private life, has been perfectly overwhelming.

The greatest destinguishing features of the "Newspaper," are Utility, Infoamation and Variety; an Agricultural Department, a Department of Science and Art, with a Little Space for Wit and Humor.

The story department is made up almost wholly of Original Stories, from the best authors that prompt and liberal payment can draw to its columns. No other family paper pays out more for original reading, and, as may be naturally supposed, no other paper publishes more or better story reading.

The Agricultural department each week, occupies some three of the long columns of the Newspaper, and is a most interesting feature of the paper, being wholly original, and comprising the usual variety for the Farmer and Land Owner, the Orchardist and Gardner, the Dairyman and Apiarian, the Grazier and Breeder, and for all who are interested in the Poultry Yard, Natural History, Rural Architecture, Agricultural Shows, new implements and plants, as well as for the housewife and the fireside, Science and the Mechanic Arts. Under this head may be weekly found a column devoted to Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Patents Inventions, Improvements in Machinery, Engineering, &c., the aim being to present all subjects discussed, in a plain and popular form. Original Letters, &c. From writers in the country we shall have weekly letters, descriptive of the resources, character and habits of the people in various sections of the Uuion. Letters from Washington of the political movements of parties, letters from New York, of the business doings of that great Commercial centre, will be continued, and in the midst of a great Presidential canvass, as the country is, these letters will have especial interest.

The News and Market Reports. In office machinery and other facilities for printing a cheap Family Paper the Dollar Newspaper is unequalled. With monster machines capable of printing 20,000 copies per hour, its columns can be held open for news to within a few hours of the date of publicatiod. It is thus enabled topublish the latest and most reliable market reports.

A New Stock
Fall and Winter Goods,

ARE now to be seen and inspected at our Store, which for STYLE and CHEAPNESS we challenge a comparison of prices with any other stock in the county. We do not vainly boast of selling cheaper than others, but simply ask buyers that may want anything usually kept in a country store, such as
Ladies' and Gentlemens' Wear, Dress Trimmings, Notions, Oil Cloths, Groceries, Hardware,
Queensware or Stationary,
to come and see for themselves, and if they are not satisfied with our prices we will not expect them to buy.

It gives us pleasure at all times to show our stock, and our object is to make sales.
