Maryland and the Crisis.

We stated yesterday that the people of Maryland were becoming sensitively alive to the necessity of calling the Legislature together to adopt such measures as may be necessary at the present critical moment. The members of the House of Delegates from Harford county—Messrs Bayless, Wilson and McCoy—have addressed a letter to Mr. Speaker Kilbourne, setting forth the necessity of an extra secession. They, however, suggest a new election of delegates throughout the State, as will be seen by the following extract from their letter:

"As members of the present House of Delegates, we are not unwilling to assume any responsibility that may properly devolve upon us; but if the Legislature is to be convened we think it highly important—and, in fact, due to our constituents; that their representatives should come fresh from the people, and be elected with reference to the new and important questions which are now at issue. We therefore respectfully suggest, through you, to our fellow members of the House, that we all resign our places and join in a request to the Governor to order a new election and call an extra session.

"This course appears to us to be so reasonable and proper, that we can scarcely doubt its adoption; and we beg that you will take some method of ascertaining the views of other members, so that we may have their counsel and concert of action in the matter. There are now eleven vacancies in the House; which can only be filled by a special election, and an election for the whole State might be held at the same time without any additional delay, or much more trouble and expense. The trouble and expense we should count as nothing in comparison with the high and important interests involved."

GOOD NEWS FROM ALABAMA AND GEORGIA—Conservatism doing its work.—Washington, Dec. 13.—A letter from a distinguished source, just received from Alabama, says it is now certain that the co-operationists or Conservatives will carry every county in Northern Alabama, in the election of Delegates to the Convention, and ten or more in middle and Southern Alabama, thus rendering doubtful the question as to which side will triumph in the Convention.

Col. Taylor, a leading Bell-Everett man of the State has published a letter strongly favoring co-operation. If, however, the ordinance of secession be passed by the Convention, the Conservatives will insist that it shall be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection.

Private accounts from Georgia state that the Conservatives, under the lead of Stephens, Johnson, Jenkins and others, are in strong hopes of carrying a majority of the members of the State Convention, and that the conciliatory tone of the Republicans will do much to strengthen the Conservatives.

The story department is made up almost wholly of Original Stories, from the best authors that prompt and liberal payment can draw to its columns. No other family paper pays out more for original reading, and, as may be naturally supposed, no other paper publishes more or better story reading.

The Agricultural department each week, occupies some three of the long columns of the Newspaper, and is a most interesting feature of the paper, being wholly original, and comprising the usual variety for the Farmer and Land Owner, the Orchardist and Gardner, the Dairyman and Apiarian, the Grazier and Breeder, and for all who are interested in the Poultry Yard, Natural History, Rural Architecture, Agricultural Shows, new implements and plants, as well as for the housewife and the fireside, Science and the Mechanic Arts. Under this head may be weekly found a column devoted to Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Patents Inventions, Improvements in Machinery, Engineering, &c., the aim being to present all subjects discussed, in a plain and popular form. Original Letters, &c. From writers in the country we shall have weekly letters, descriptive of the resources, character and habits of the people in various sections of the Union.
