As I do not think I now have time to make a formal Will I therefore declare that I do fully assent to the determination respecting the division of the shares of Thomas Hamsons Estate as directed by the Gentlemen appointed by the Will for that purpose of my late Father William West. — — —
It is my desire & I do give equally to my two Sisters to be divided between them all the property I now possess or have may any right to in the World with the following exceptions viz that is to say I give unto Betsey Chambers fifty pounds Current Money to be paid within one Year. I also give and Bequeath to Mr James House all my painting utensils that I now have in America not meaning thereby pictures which I wish my Sisters to make choice of such of my Pictures as they may want provided that they do not chuse Portraits of such of my friends as I may have drawn for themselves
