The Tribune for 1867.

The Tribune enters upon the year 1867 more prosperous in business than ever before. The expediency of enlarging our pages—thus making the Tribune the largest and cheapest newspaper in America—was doubted by many. We have found our account in it. The circulation of the Tribune is steadily increasing, our advertising patronage has increased so much that it is more difficult to print our news than when we used a smaller sheet, and this difficulty we can only meet by frequently publishing supplementary pages.

The close of the war has imposed upon the Tribune the discussion of momentous and peculiar problems. We have met them as best we could, laboring with sincerity for Freedom, Social Progress, Political Equality, Impartial Suffrage—All Rights for all. A Republican President became the enemy of Republicanism, and we have been called upon to denounce and expose the treacheries of a degraded Administration. It is not without pain, certainly not without much thinking, that we made an issue with President Johnson. The people approved our course by returning their radical representatives to power. The elections of 1866—as important to the nation as Lee's surrender—make new duties. Reconstruction is now the duty of the country—political reconstruction—reconstruction in finances and tariffs. We are no longer pressed by war necessities, and we must amend our war experiments. The present condition of the currency is a grievous evil. Trade suffers; our manufacturing interests are in a precarious state. A dollar does not mean a dollar, but its fraction. It may be sixty cents, it may be ten. It is a sentiment, not a fact. When the laborer earns his dollar, he does not know whether he has one loaf of bread or ten. All business is feverish and unsettled. We think this can only be remedied by a wise and intrepid policy at Washington—by reducing the currency to the specie basis.—Upon this we shall insist.

The necessity of Protection to Labor again presses upon us. We regret that on this most important measure the Republican party is divided. An honest but mischievous minority in the West, particularly, are endeavoring to create a policy which can only result in the prostration of American Industry—the degradation of Labor and the aggrandizement of English capitalists. During the many years of our work we have struggled against this interest. We believe Protection more necessary now than ever before, and we shall insist upon the broadest and wisest legislation for the Rights of Labor.

In the perplexing question of Reconstruction we see no reason to amend the policy which we have asserted since the close of the war. It then seemed to us that Emancipation of the Black should be followed by Suffrage for the Black. We did not see the wisdom of a policy of promiscuous confiscation and hanging. We had too much blood in war to ask for blood in peace—even to gratify angry vengeance. It seemed important that the South should concede Suffrage, and that the North should concede Amnesty. Some of our friends disapproved of this; but Congress has followed our advice. Amnesty has been approved by Congress—to a greater extent than we claimed in the Tribune. We have held that the men who have starved captives in Rebel dungeons, who murdered surrendered prisoners, who violated the rules of war, and aided the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, should be tried and punished. Congress and the Administration have agreed that no punishment should be inflicted even upon men who are charged with these crimes, and the only measure looking like punishment is the amendment of disfranchisement from holding office, which is merely a sentimental and not a practical penalty. On the other hand, the passage of the Civil Rights bill, the Freedmen's Bureau bill, and the bill for Suffrage in the District of Columbia, show that reconstruction will not be consummated without suffrage and protection for the Blacks. The policy of the Tribune has been practically adopted by those who differed with us during its discussion.—We never quarrel with friends who are impatient with us. We do them the justice of believing they go their way to what is right, just as we trust they will do us the justice of believing we go our way to what is right. We work for the same object, but perhaps in different ways. We have no higher aim than to secure peace to this nation, and to all nations—liberty, progress, happiness, virtue, and the universal brotherhood of man. And for this we shall continue to toil in our best way.

We have recognized and strengthened every department of the Tribune. We have correspondents in every part of this country and in every country of the world; resident correspondents in every capital and commercial centre of Europe and South America; special correspondents who follow important movements in all parts of the earth. This establishment costs a great deal of money, and to organize it we have invested many thousands of dollars. When we state that there are three hundred people directly or indirectly connected with the editorial department of the Tribune, charged, in a greater or lesser degree, with writing for its columns and giving its news, and that for every item of news we pay money, the vast expense of our publication may be imagined. We intend to enlarge these facilities, and not only to gather news from all parts of the world, but to ask the most gifted men of other countries to write for our columns. With many of them we have already entered into negotiations which will result in giving to the readers the Tribune a series of essays that, both for their intrinsic value and the fame of their illustrious authors, will long be memorable in the history of journalism. We postpone for the present a more definite announcement.

Friends of Impartial Justice and Progress! we greet you on the bright prospects before us. Friends of the Tribune! we appeal to those who believe that an increased circulation of the Tribune would conduce to the political, intellectual, and moral well-being of the Republic, to aid us in effecting such increase.

The Political Situation.

THE PRESIDENT ANXIOUS TO COMPROMISE.

A Washington dispatch to the Philadelphia Press says:

There is no doubt that President Johnson has been conferring with some of the Republican members on the propriety of yielding to the now inevitable triumph of the Congressional policy. A meeting was held last night, at the Johnson headquarters, attended by a number of Representatives, who gathered for the purpose of listening to certain suggestions of compromise or surrender. That there is some truth in these surmises is proved by the consternation of the Democrats in the two Houses. They see that there is danger of losing their hold upon the patronage which they have been wielding with such bitterness during the last year. Not a few of them openly denounce the President for vascillation and bad faith. Bad faith to whom, pray? To the men who did not vote for him, and who now despise him—men who are utterly powerless to assist him in any State excepting Maryland, Delaware and Kentucky. Everywhere else they are in a hopeless minority. Nothing that can transpire will induce Congress to change its course in the slightest particular. Yet if President Johnson will nominate sound republicans to the Senate, and will get rid of the incapables who have brought so much disgrace upon the country, he will not only subserve the general interests, but rescue his character, which, like a drowning man, is rapidly sinking for the last time. The Democratic party is to-day as hopelessly crushed out as the rebellion. It has neither coherence nor consistency—neither platform nor principles. No better evidence of the deplorable condition of this organization can be found than in the President's organ, the National Intelligencer, which is nothing more than a daily apology for treason and a daily calumny upon patriotism—alternating between attacks upon Congress and compliments to the traitors. Andrew Johnson has, therefore, another chance to save himself. He sees that the whole power of this Government is in Congress, and that the people are resolved to control the institutions they have rescued in their own way. He can even prevent his own impeachment, which every hour's negligence renders imperative; but, in order to attain these results, he must not deceive himself by expecting that Congress will concede to a single one of his heresies, or to any of the demands of the Rebel chiefs. Let him abandon his ground, obey the decrees of the battle-field and the ballot-box, yield to the representatives of the people in Congress assembled, select honest officers from the men who have saved the Government, and the two years that are left to him will be years of personal peace, if not personal honor.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World says:

A despatch from the North Carolina Legislature shows that the new plan of reconstruction proposed by the Southern Governors cannot pass that body. Another effort is, therefore, being made here to see if some plan cannot be drawn up to which the President will give his assent. A meeting was held last night and to-night, by several conservative republicans who are on good terms with the Executive, to ascertain if by some slight mutual concessions not amounting to any sacrifice of principle; a measure of reconstruction could not be agreed upon that would meet the views of both the Legislative and Executive branches of the Government. The comparison of views expressed served to cause the belief that the interview may lead to practical results hereafter, though no definite steps were taken. One of the Congressmen who participated in this movement intimated to-day that the President would give his adhesion to the Blaine proposition, which is the pending Consitutional Amendment and universal suffrage, if nothing more satisfactory could be agreed on, but better authority doubts the statement in toto.

ROAD NOTICE.

WHEREAS, a certain commission has been issued by the County Commissioners for Caroline county, bearing date the 5th day of February, 1867, reciting that sundry citizens, residents of Caroline county, have petitioned the Commissioners for Caroline county asking the grant of a public road to begin at the corner of the lands of Martin Robinson, in Tuckahoe Neck, adjacent to the lands of John W Atkinson, running through the lands of Martin Robinson, Charles H Flemming, Henry S. Fisher and Charles E. Jarrell, till it intersects the road leading from Nichols' Mill to Hillsborough and crossing said road through the lands of Eliza Wayman to Tuckahoe creek.
Now, notice is hereby given to all persons and parties concerned, and to the public, that the undersigned examiners will meet at the beginning of said road, on SATURAY, the 16th day of March, next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and will proceed to examine and determine whether or not the public convenience require said road should be opened, and if upon examination we should be of opinion and so determine in our judgments that the public convenience requires said road should be opened, to locate and open the same agreeably to said commission and the Code of Public General Laws in such case made and provided, and we will continue in the execution of said commission from day to day, if necessary, until the same is completed.

ASTROLOGY.

The World Astonished

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS
MADE BY THE GREAT ASTOLOGIST,
Madame H. A PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the conflagration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favoral le an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likenesses enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, post-paid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. CRISPER COMA.

Oh! she was beautiful and fair,
With starry eyes, and radiant hair,
Whose curling tendrils soft, entwined,
Enchained the very heart and mind.

CRISPER COMA.

For Curling the Hair of either Sex into Wavy and Glossy Ringlets or Heavy Massive Curls.

By using this article Ladies and Gentleman can beautify themselves a thousand fold. It is the only article in the world that will curl straight hair, and at the same time give it a beautiful, glossy appearance. The Crisper Coma not only curls the hair, but invigorates, beautifies and cleanses it; is highly and delightfully perfumed, and is the most complete article of the kind ever offered to the American public. The Crisper Coma will be sent to any address, sealed and postpaid for 1$.

EXCELSIOR! EXCELSIOR!!

CHASTELLAR'S
Hair Exterminator!!
For Removing Superfluous Hair,

To the ladies especially, this invaluable depilatory recommends itself as being an almost indispensible article to female beauty, is easily applied, does not burn or injure the skin, but acts directly on the roots. It is warranted to remove superfluous hair from low foreheads, or from any part of the body, completely, totally, and radically extirpating the same, leaving the skin soft, smooth and natural. This is the only article used by the French, and is the only real effectual depilatory in existence. Price 75 cents per package, sent post-paid, to any address, on receipt of an order, by
