The Orphans Court of Caroline county will sit on (this) Thursday March 14th.

RECOVERING.—Mr. Benjamin Seegar, of Queen Ann's county, who was recently so badly beaten and stabbed by negroes, is in a fair way of recovery. As Mr. Seegar formerly resided in this county, this announcement will be highly gratito his friends.

General George H. Thomas has written a letter to a friend in Tennessee declining to allow his name to be used as a candidate for the Presidency, stating that he is better qualified to discharge his duties of a citizen as a soldier than in any other capacity.

GEN. GRANT has sent to the President the names of four distinguished generals as commanders in the military districts in the Southern States, as follows: Gens. Schofield, Sickles, Sheridan and Thomas. The fifth has not yet been decided on.—It will be either Hancock or Ord.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—An election was held in New Hampshire on Tuesday for a Governor, three members of Congress and a State Legislature. We have not received any news of the result up to going to press, though the Republicans expect to carry the State by from 2,000 to 3,000 majority.

THE CONVENTION BILL.—In the Maryland Senate, on Saturday last, the bill to call a convention to frame a new State Constitution was taken up and defeated, years 15, nays 7. As only one more vote was necessary to make it a law, notice was given of a motion for reconsideration, the Democrats hoping thus to force it through.

RECONSTRUCTION IN LOUISIANA.—The Louisiana Legislature has entered a protest against the Sherman Reconstruction bill. The impeachment of Gov. Wells, for alleged usurpations in issuing his proclamation declaring the qualification of voters in conformity with the bill, is probable. General Sheridan ordered the postponement of the election which was to have been held on Monday.

THE Judiciary Committee of the Thirty-ninth Congress, made a report to the House of Representatives relative to the pursuit and capture of John H. Surratt. The conclusions arrived at are that no efforts were made by the Executive to have Surratt identified or traced, and that there was great delay in notifying our Ministers abroad in regard to the movements of Surratt after the government had been notified of them.

THE Republican members of the United States Senate held a caucus, at which they agreed not to fix upon a day of adjournment until after the enactment of a supplement to the Sherman Reconstruction act, providing for the calling of conventions, the registration of voters the primary elections, and other machinery of reconstruction. As a veto of the bill is presupposed, it will be necessary for Congress to remain in session to receive the veto and place the bill on the statute book by a two-thirds majority.

GOVERNOR BROWN, of Georgia, who was the Chief Executive of his State during the war, and who is one of the leading politicians of the South, has promulgated a letter in which he urges compliance with the terms of the Reconstruction bill passed by Congress. He says that the North had the power to insist upon these conditions; that it will employ this power; and that if the principles now proposed are resisted, something more decisive will surely follow. For these reasons, he is in favor of an early call for a State Convention of Georgia, and the alteration of its Constitution so as to accord equal and impartial suffrage.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—We are apt, while passing through such exciting scenes as our country has lately been called upon to witness, and whilst commemorating the daring and noble deeds of patriots and statesmen, to pass unnoticed, either through ignorance or from considerations of insignificance, the enterprising spirits that are zealously laboring for the advancement of home interests. And this applies directly to ourselves, though ignorance is our excuse and not considerations of insignificance. In Bloomery school district, this county, stood an old schoolhouse which was scarcely fit for a stable, much less for the purpose for which it was used, and which was considerably distant from the centre of the district, thereby rendering school advantages by no means convenient only for a few. Some time ago it blew down, and it became necessary to build a new one. The citizens were called upon to contribute for this purpose, and each promised to give something, provided it would be built on the spot designated by them, each endeavoring to place it most convenient for himself. Thus were a multiplicity of sites mentioned, but no house built, and the district was without a school, each one refusing to contribute only for the site he wished. Under these circumstances, Mr. Wm. E. Liden, a resident of that district, took the matter into his own hands, and built a comfortable house at his own expense, and on his own land. It is, we learn, in the right place, and convenient to all. His expenses were over $500. This is a rare instance of liberality in this county, and, as such, should elicit the commendations of all our citizens.

PAY FOR SLAVES.—While the convention bill was pending before the Senate on Saturday, Mr. Maddox moved to strike out that clause in the bill which prohibits the convention from granting payment for the slaves emancipated by the State. It was lost, yeas 2, nays 18. The Democrats have denied that it is their intention to extort payment from the State of Maryland for emancipated slaves, yet, occasionally, it is impossible to keep some of them quiet in regard it, and we may safely predict that, if ever the convention does assemble, this will be one of its first measures. They are now remaining quiet through policy. But, whether the clause is or is not inserted, it matters but little, for it will be of no binding force. Are they so simple as to believe they can palm off upon the people of this State the idea that a bill passed by the present legislature will have any restraining effect upon the soverign will of the people when assembled in convention to frame a new constitution? If so, they are much mistaken, and are more verdant than those whom they seek to delude by their wiley artifices.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.—The Democratic members of the Maryland Legislature met in caucus on Monday night and nominated Ex-Governor Philip Francis Thomas, of Talbot county, as Senator to represent this State in the XLth Congress. He was subsequently informed of his nomination, and introduced in the caucus, when he made a speech in which he described Congress as "bent upon destroying the Union," "establishing a military despotism," etc., and he pledged himself to assert the rights of the States, and "to face these men who are now and always were traitors to the Union." If he ever gets his seat, we opine he will have about as much effect in disturbing the composure of that august assemblage of loyalty and patriotism as does some of his abler friends of the Democratic party.

COURT.—The March term of the Circuit Court for this county commenced its session on Monday last. Up to Tuesday night but little of importance was transacted. We append the only two cases that have been disposed of.

State vs. Wm. H. Corkran. Assault and battery. Guilty and fined $20 and costs. Blocksom for State, Downes for defendant.

State vs. Joseph Ross. Indited for larceny. Not guilty. Blocksom for State, Hignutt for defendant.

FOR the benefit of our farming patrons we have concluded to devote one column, each week, to agricultural reading. We shall make selections only from the best authorities, and such as will be of interest and benefit to our farmers. We invite all to furnish us with their experience in every department of agriculture, so that, if practicable, others may follow their example. The column will be found on our fourth page.

THE NEW ERA.—After a suspension of two weeks, this paper has resumed publication under the auspices of S. A. Graham & Co. Its politics are Republican. It is printed at Salisbury, Md., and will doubtless advance the Union cause in Somerset and Worcester counties, both of which, as well as the entire Shore, need regenerating.

AMERICAN FARMER.—In the March number of this Magazine the matter is almost exclusively original—embracing Farm and Garden Work—Improvement of Poor Lands (continued)—Comparative Profit of Large and Small Farms—Farm Wages; Drainage; Phosphates; Hop, and Basket Willow Culture—Barley—Artificial Manures—Uses of Lime—and a variety of interesting topics.

Published at Baltimore, Md, at $2 a year, by WORTHINGTON & LEWIS.

THE VACANT SENATORSHIP.—A correspondent of the Baltimore American, writing from Annapolis under date of March 7th, thus comments upon the vacant senatorship and the candidates for that position:

There is some difference of opinion here as to when is the proper time to elect a successor to Mr. Creswell in the United States Senate. Some contend that the Legislature cannot elect without a special session is called, while the larger number take the ground that under the law regulating the election of United States Senator the General Assembly must commence voting on the second Tuesday after a vacancy occurs. The following is the section of the law upon which the opinion is based:

"Section 2. That whenever, on the meeting of the Legislature of any State, a vacancy shall exist in the representation of such State in the Senate of the United States, said Legislature shall proceed on the said second Tuesday after the commencement and organization of its session, to elect a person to fill such vacancy, in the manner hereinfore provided for the election of a Senator for a full term; and if a vacancy shall happen during the session of the Legislature, then on the second Tuesday after the Legislature shall have been organized and shall have notice of such vacancy."

Next Tuesday is the second Tuesday, and the impression is that a vote will be taken on that day and a Senator elected. There is no restriction as to which section of the State he shall come from, and, unlike Governor Swann's case, there will be no necessity for repealing any law to make any gentleman elligible. By the repeal and re-enactment of the Eastern Shore law, which Gov. Swann so promptly signed on the day of its passage and his election, as he says "without any agency or solicitation on my part," the Eastern Shore is entitled to the next Senator, and there is every prospect of that section obtaining the one to be chosen now. The bill in question provides "that in the first election of Senator to represent this State in the Senate of the United States, which shall be held after the first day of April, 1867, the person elected shall be an inhabitant of the Eastern Shore." So the Eastern Shore will have, without the law is not respected, the Senators to be chosen now and two years hence. It is customary in this Legislature, however, to repeal one day a law passed the previous one, and as the Eastern Shore law has served a portion of what was expected of it, it may be wiped off the statute books.

Hon. Montgomery Blair, Hon. Alexander Evans, Hon. Philip Francis Thomas, Hon. Isaac D. Jones, Hon. John W. Crisfield, and Hon. Samuel Hambleton are all mentioned in the ranks of the majority as candidates for the honor of representing Maryland in the Senate. I suppose the Republicans will again cast their votes for Hon. J. A. J. Creswell.

Mr. Blair has certainly more right to this reward for what he has done for the Democracy and against the Republican party than any one else, and his withdrawal at the opening of the canvass, in favor of Governor Swann, leaving the coast clear for him, should certainly receive at the hands of that gentleman a kind return now. Mr. Blair was the founder and head of the "New party" in Maryland. It and Mr. Swann was only his mouth-piece. To Blair belongs the credit, if credit it be, of making Mr. Swann Senator (and rumor says of unmaking him too), and the Governor should now reciprocate. But I fear the original Democracy cannot see the merit of Mr. Blair's claims, and will choose one of their own number as their representative The indications are that Governor Thomas or Isaac D. Jones is the coming man, and if the contest be reduced down to these two in the caucus, Mr. Swann's friends, the Conservatives—or as Mr. Kimmell, of Baltimore, calls them—"our unsteady allies," will probably hold the balance of power, and by voting solidly for either one of these gentlemen, secure him the nomination.

ARMSTRONG'S ESTATE.—Andrew P. Armstrong, when executed, had in the hands of Sheriff Herbert $3,500 in government bonds, which, including interest; was worth about $4,000. The cost of his trial and execution amounted to $529,05, which, by order of the Court, was deducted from the amount in hand by the Sheriff. We understand that Mr. Ephraim Beaston, who has authority to settle the estate, intends to apply to the Legislature to refund the costs of trial and execution.

MR. PEABODY'S RETURN TO EUROPE.—Mr. George Peabody, intending soon to leave for England, informs those who have written to him asking loans of money, subscriptions to churches, public charities, &c., or assistance for themselves or others, that the great number of these communications has rendered it impossible for him to read or answer, or even to open them in person. These letters, amounting to nearly four thousand, have been burned in his presence.—Balt. Sun.

DEATH OF "ARTEMUS WARD."—A cable dispatch announces the death of Chas. F. Browne, at Southampton, England.—To the American people he was well-known as "Artemus Ward," a humorous lecturer and writer, and perhaps no literary character was every so popular in this country as he was. Mr. Browne was a native of Maine; but at an early age removed to Cleveland, O., where he obtained the position of local editor on the Plaindealer, a paper published at that place. Here he wrote his first letter, which soon became popular from its broad humor and grotesque spelling. He afterwards removed to New York and edited for a time a short-lived comic paper called Vanity Fair, at the same time delivering lectures and writing his humorous letters. Some months ago he made an engagement with Punch, and started for England, where disease overtook him and caused his early death. Mr. Browne was a young man of not exceeding thirty years, and was noted for his amiability of character and warm open-heartedness.

☞ A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Thousands of horses die yearly from colic.—This need not be. Dr. Tobias' Venitian Horse Liniment will positively cure every case, if given when first taken. The cost is only one dollar. Every owner of a horse should have a bottle in his stable, ready for use. It is warranted superior to anything else for the cure of Cuts, Wind Galls, Swellings, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Old Sores, &c. This Liniment is no new remedy. It has been used and approved of for 19 years by the first horsemen in the country. Given to an over-driven horse, it acts like magic. Orders are constantly received from the racing stables of England for it. The celebrated Hiram Woodruff, of trotting fame, has used it for years, and says it is far superior to any other he has tried. He kindly permits me to refer to him.
