Sale of a Farm.—Mr. Jas. K. Saulsbury has sold his farm, near Denton, containing 50 acres, to Mr. Josiah Jump for the sum of $5,800.

Adjournment of the Legislature.—The Maryland Legislature adjourned on Saturday last sine die, having thus sat one day beyond the period for which the members could draw their per diem.

Another Veto.—President Johnson vetoed the Supplementary Reconstruction bill, providing for the more efficient government of the Southern States, on Saturday. Both houses immediately passed the bill over his veto.

Appointment and Confirmation.—Mr. James Melvin, of this town, has been appointed and confirmed as commissioner for this county to take evidence of ownership of emancipated slaves in compliance with an act of the Legislation.

The Ladys' Friend.—The April number of this truly interesting magazine has been received, and is embelished with its usual finely executed steel engravings, fashion plates, &c. It has its customary varied, entertaining and instructive reading. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, at $2,50 per year.

Lieutenant Governor Cox.—The special committee, appointed at the solicitation of Dr. Cox to investigate the reports in circulation relative to his appointment of Mr. Creswell, as United States Senator in the event of the rejection of Mr. Swann, after performing the duty assigned them, reported that the reports were entirely without foundation.

Republican State Convention.—The State Convention of the Republican party which assembled in Baltimore on the 27th of February, ult., and adjourned subject to the call of the President, Dr. Charles H. Ohr, reassembled yesterday to inaugurate measures to counteract the ruinous policy attempted to be unlawfully forced upon the people of this State by a partizan faction.

From Delaware.—The Delaware Legislature adjourned on Saturday, sine die. Amongst the important legislation has been the bill equalizing punishment for crime, regardless of color; the rejection of the Constitutional Amendment, and the amendatory school law. There is a strong feeling amongst the Republicans of this State in favor of impartial suffrage, and a movement is about to be inaugurated in favor of it.

$1,000 Reward.—In our advertising columns this morning will be found a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers of Mr. James A. Tarr, on the night of the 15th inst., $500 by the State and $500 by the county. As yet the terrible affair is enshrouded in mystery. Frank Boyer, who we noticed as being arrested on suspicion, has been released, no evidence being adduced to prove his guilt.

Teachers Association.—The next meeting of the Teachers' Asscoition will be held at Castle Hall, March 30th at 10 o'clock, A. M. The following is the programme for the day:

1st. Regular business of the Association.

D. E. GREY, Sec'y.

Dinner to Hon. Messrs. Creswell and Thomas.—A very pleasant and greatly enjoyed reception and dinner was given to our late Representatives in Congress, Hon. John A. J. Creswell and Hon. John L. Thomas, Jr., at the Union Club House, Baltimore city, on Wednesday evening, the 20th inst., by a number of personal and political friends of these gentlemen. The occasion was an entirely informal and social one, in which a few of the many who honor and esteem these gentlemen for the devotion to principle manifested in their congressional career were brought together to express that approval and enjoy with them an evening of intercourse and counsel. About fifty gentlemen sat down to the table, which was splendidly provided. Wm. J. Albert, Esq., presided at the head of the table, with Senator Creswell on his right and Mr. Thomas on his left. At the other end Judge Bond presided, flanked by General Schenck, of Ohio, and Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives. The following toasts were offered, and elicited from each of the gentlemen eloquent and feeling responses:

"Hon. John A J. Creswell.—One of the youngest of the Senators of the Thirty-ninth Congress; however long he may live, he will always find his countrymen, whom he has served with so much distinction, as faithful to his worth as he has been to the honor of the nation!"

"Hon. John L. Thomas.—He returns to his constituents with a reputation for devotion to principle which entitles him to rank among the true men of the most memorable Congress of the Republic."

Then the following toasts were offered in honor of the Senate of the United States and the House of Representatives, to the former of which General Schenck replied, to the latter Edward McPherson, both worthy representatives of a great and enlightened people:

"The Congress of the United States.—It has proven that Executive vetoes are powerless to stay the execution of the people's will, and that Executive appointments must be conferred on the friends of the people, and not on the parasites of a President."

"The House of Representatives.—Mindful of the lessons of the past, it seeks to establish perpetual peace upon the true foundations of National security—Liberty, Equality and Justice."

Hon. Schuyler Colfax had been invited and was expected to be present, but was unavoidably detained in Washington.—Short speeches were made by other prominent Republicans, and the evening was passed very pleasantly.

The Storm.—One of the most severe storms ever experienced in this section of country visited us on Thursday and Friday last, doing much damage to mills and other property. The springs have risen so high in our town that the water has been running out at the top of wells, and covering the floors of cellars with water to a depth of one and two feet. The mill dam of Mr. W. G. Horsey was broken, but no damage was done to the mill. Mr. Zacharias' mill, however, was considerably injured, the dam breaking near it and washing away the foundation. We also learn that Wilkinson's mill dam broke, as did also the dam of the Fowling Creek mill. At Federalsburg the water rose to such an extent that the bridge was only prevented from being swept away by placing wood and railroad ties upon it, and it even flooded several of the houses.—At Greensborough a similar scene was witnessed, and travel was impeded near the bridge. The stream below Watt's creek, between this place and Potter's Landing, was so swollen that passage through it was impossible. Mr. Wm. A Sisk, who resides in the lower part of the county, and who had started for Denton, was swept down the stream by the current, and had to cut his horse loose from his cariage, leaving it in the stream.—The water, has now subsided and travel is resumed. On the line of the Delaware Railroad travel was entirely suspended below Dover, on Friday, the bridges being swept away. Even the massive stone culverts were inadequate to withstand the force of the current. The telegraph wires failed to work, several poles having blown down. Travel has been resumed on the Railroad, and the telegraph is now in working order.

Proceedings of the Court.—In preparing matter for our paper last week we overlooked the proceedings of the Court, although we fully intended to lay them before our readers. We have, however, but two additional cases to give besides those given in week before last's issue:

State vs. Susan Perkins (col'd.) Indictment for larceny. Acquitted. Blocksom for State, Bryant for defence.

State vs. Thomas J. Kemp. Indictment for larceny. Acquitted. Blocksom for State, Kemp & Bro. for defence.

During the progress of the trial of the latter case, the counsel for the defence objected to the introducing of negro testimony in the Court, but it was overruled by Judge Goldsborough, and the trial proceeded with the result above given.

Immigration.—The House of Delegates has passed the Senate bill employing Dr. James Higgins to travel through the Northern States for two years and lecture upon the advantages of Maryland for immigrants, paying him a salary of two thousand dollars per annum and travelling expenses. This is but a useless expenditure of the public monies of the State. If the Democrats expect immigration to steadily pour into our State from the North, where lies all the capital of the country, they must hold out greater inducements by way of legislation. They may expend the entire revenue of the State for this purpose, but it will avail nothing so long as such partizan legislation is indulged in in the attempt to make loyalty a crime and treason honorable.—Perhaps they made a slight mistake, and inserted the word Northern instead of Southern, all their acts being in consonance with the spirit of that people.

The Convention Bill.—The Legislature, prior to its adjournment, passed the bill calling a convention to frame a new State Constitution. The chairman of the Democratic-Conservative State Central Committee for this county has called primary meetings in the several districts. Union men, keep your distance, and if a revolution is inaugurated in the State, let the responsibility rest upon their own shoulders.

Daily Evening Chronotype.—This is the title of a new daily paper, recently started in Baltimore. It is republican in politics, and gives evidence of ability in its editorial management. Typographically it presents a very neat appearance. Published by Hobbs & Mansfield, 44 W. Fayette street.

A General receives	$16,465,10
A Lieut. Gen.	13,919,10
A Major Gen.	7,956,85
A Brigadier Gen.	5,513,60

A 2nd Lieut., cavalry	1,538,93
" foot	1,400,90

This includes the additional pay voted by the Thirty-ninth Congress, which lasts for two years from July 1st, 1866.

Jeff. Davis to be Released.—The President has recently been urged by Congressmen of the Republican persuasion and other influential citizens, to release Jefferson Davis from imprisonment upon bail or upon his own recognizance, inasmuch as there is now less probability than heretofore that Chief Justice Chase can be induced to preside at a session of the United States Circuit Court in Virginia within a reasonable time.

In view of all the circumstances, the President is asked to release Mr. Davis from confinement on bail or on his own recognizance, and there is good reason for saying that within the next ten days or two weeks Mr Davis will be discharged from custody upon his recognizance to answer the charges that may be brought against him.—Phila. Ledger.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 11, 1864.

Messrs. Thos. Allcock & Co.—Please send, with dispatch, twelve dozen Allcock's Porous Plasters. Our daily experience confirms their very superior excellence. At this moment of writing a man applies for one, who, by entanglement in the shaft of machinery, had both his legs broken, spine severely injured, and was for nearly a year helpless. This man found relief very soon by the application of a plaster to his spine. He was soon enabled to work, and now he labors as well as ever. He would cheerfully pay $5 for a single Plaster if they could not be had at a lower rate. I am surprised that surgeons do not make use of these perforated plasters to the exclusion of all others, as their flexibility and adhesiveness are greatly in advance of all other plasters with which I am acquainted; while the performations peculiar to them rendered them greatly superior to all others for ordinary surgical uses. Knowing the plasters to be so useful, I have no scruples that my sentiments should be known.
