Farmer's Column.

Flat Surface for Corn.

The old fashion of hilling Indian corn—so long prevalent among our farmers—appears still to have many advocates. We are not at present prepared to discuss the subject in all its bearings, but shall merely offer a few remarks in relation to the advantages resulting from a flat surface on light soils, and from cultivating the crop with the cultivator, instead of cultivating with the plow, harrow and hoe.

It will be evident, we think, to every candid mind, that the practice of constructing large conical hills around the plants, on land which is light and dry, most inevitably tend to increase the effects of drought, inasmuch as it exposes more surface to the atmosphere, and consequently increases rarefaction at times when all the moisture contained in the soil is required for the support and sustenance of the plants. When rain falls, the conical hill conducts the water from the roots to the centre of space between the rows and hills, very little of the fluid being retained about the plants, or within range of the small roots, by which the PABULUM is taken up by the growing plants, and without which they would immediately languish and decay.

On light soils we think hilling is always a disadvantage to the crop. Every fresh stratum of earth placed over the roots causes the protrusion of a new set of laterals, to the detriment of those previously formed. This exhausts the energy of the plant, without increasing, in any degree, its powers of appropriating food from the surrounding soil, as the first-formed roots cease to grow as those caused by the deposition of new soil are developed, and in a short time will be found to have lost their vitality and become mere worthless appendages, and which may be as well removed from the system as not.

Besides, when the corn is "hilled up," the stalks are "blanched" and rendered brittle by the fresh soil, and this, in case of strong winds, causes them to break, which is an injury involving a diminution of product and consequent loss. It has also been remarked that corn, when cultivated without hilling, and with a perfectly level or flat surface, will, when prostrated by the wind, rise much more readily than when the opposite method is pursued. And I know this to be so.—Cor. Germantown Telegraph.

Grafting.

Every farmer should learn to do his own grafting. It is a very easy operation when once understood. A sharp penknife and a good, fine saw are indispensable.—Splitting the stock so that the bark shall not be bruised—and shaping the scion wedge fashion both ways, preserving also the bark uninjured—and placing the rim of the wood of both stock and scion exactly together, so that the sap can intermingle—there is no danger of failure if properly waxed. We make a shoulder to the graft and think it adds to the certainty of success, though probably weakens it.—We prefer also two eyes or buds to a graft, and would rather have only one than more than two. One year's wood should always be used when it can be obtained, as it is more certain to take and grow more vigorously.

We wish to remind those about preparing grafting wax, that we have found four parts of rosin, one part of beeswax, and one part beef tallow to be the best proportions. Melt them together in a skillet, (which is the best,) or a tin cup, and mix well. It should remain in the vessel, and be used as needed. Twenty or thirty scions can be waxed with one heating up. When much grafting is to be done, a little fire for heating the wax should be made on the spot, between two bricks or stones.

We have seen various preparations for making grafting wax, and we believe we have tried them all, but prefer our own. Applying warm or hot does no injury to the graft. The object to attain in the proportion is that the wax will not crack in cool, dry weather, or run in warm weather.—Germantown Telegraph.

THE PRESERVATION OF FRUIT TREES.—The Farmers' Club of the American Institute, of New York, recently held a meeting, at which a discussion took place on the best method of destroying curculio on fruit trees. One of the members stated that if a hole was bored in the body of the tree and filled with sulphur, it would so infect the tree that no insect or worm would live upon it. Upon some doubt being expressed as to its efficacy, he said that he had tried the remedy, and spoke from experience. The chairman remarked that if this be a sure preventative, it was worth millions to the country, and we need never lack a supply of fruit in the future.

How to prevent flies from getting at your bacon in summer—eat it in the spring.

ASTROLOGY.

The World Astonished

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTOLOGIST,

Madame H. A PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophies, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the conflagration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1 Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likenesses enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, post-paid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Mears' Infallible

(SUGAR-COATED)

ACUE PILLS

NEVER FAIL!

Mears' Wonderful Ague Pills

are unrivalled for the cure of Chills and Fever. Hundreds of persons who have been afflicted with this distressing complaint for months, after trying Quinine in vain, have been speedily cured by them.

They are warranted not to contain a particle of Quinine, Arsenic, or any other deleterious drug; on the contrary, they are a most excellent tonic and alterative, promoting the appetite, and renovating and strengthening the system. For a torpid liver, or any bilious derangement, they will be found an excellent remedy—gently stimulating the liver to an increased action—thus removing the most troublesome source of this distressing disease.

Those living in districts where Chills and Fever prevail should never be without these Pills; and on the first appearance of the symptoms, should take a few, and thus ward off an attack.

They may be taken by old or young, and at any time, without the slightest regard to diet or exposure.

BRISTOL, August 1st, 1866.

This is to certify, that I am acquainted with the formula of Mear's celebrated Fever and Ague Pills, and I have used the same very extensively in my practice, and have never known them to fail when used according to directions; on the contrary, I have succeeded with them, in many instances, after trying Quinine in vain.

E. J. GROOM, M. D.

NEWPORTVILLE, Aug. 1st, 1866.

This is to certify that I am acquainted with the formula of Mear's Fever and Ague Pills, and have no hesitation in pronouncing them a perfectly reliable and sure cure for all forms of this distressing disease, if taken according to directions. RICHARD DINGEE, M. D.
